

Pretty wedding A lovely bride

Mr and Mrs Tom Machesney are pictured here following their marriage in the Stouffville Missionary Church. The bride is the former Wendy Faye Wagg, daughter of Gordon and Kay Wagg of Stouffville. The groom is the son of Jim and Evelyn Machesney, Mount Albert.

Christ Anglican Services

STOUFFVILLE — The Christmas season (even Christmas Day), is an exciting as well as a sacred time for the congregation of Christ Church (Anglican), Sunset Boulevard. The following special services are planned for the week ahead

CANDLELIGHT SERVICE
The annual candlelight carol service will be held on Sunday, Dec. 19 beginning at 6 p.m., and featuring the home church choir.

FAMILY PAGEANT
The church's Family Eucharist and Pageant, Fri., Dec. 24, relates the story of the first Christmas in Bethlehem. The singing will be led by the Jr. Choir and the sanctuary will be beautifully lit with candles. Time of the service is 6 p.m.

MIDNIGHT SERVICE
The congregation's traditional midnight service begins at 11:30 p.m., Christmas Eve. Many look on this worship as "their favorite" of the year.

CHORAL EUCHARIST
This Christmas Day family service begins at 10 a.m. Says Rev. Poole: "Why not take a little while out of this family day to kneel before the manger and offer thanks to God for the birth of Jesus?" "Our favorite" of the year.

CHORAL EUCHARIST
This Christmas Day family service begins at 10 a.m. Says Rev. Poole: "Why not take a little while out of this family day to kneel before the manger and offer thanks to God for the birth of Jesus?" "Why not make Christmas Day worship a special family event?"

On Sunday, Dec. 26, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m., and Morning Prayer at ten.

On Dec. 23, Mrs Gertrude Ross of Parkview Home, Stouffville, will mark her 99th birthday. The occasion was celebrated with a party, Dec. 8. Attending the gathering was her daughter, Dorothy Plewman of Toronto. —Jim Thomas.

Lions' Trees
The Stouffville Lions Club has Christmas trees for sale again this year at the A. & P. Plaza. The price is $15 regardless of size. Don Huxtable is the committee chairman.
xxx xxx xxx

Manager Entertains
Paul and Lois Roney, Ninth Line North, entertained members of the Scotia Bank staff at a Christmas party at their home, Dec. 8.
xxx xxx xxx

Improvement
A major improvement to Stouffville's Main Street is the completed work on the Stiver Bros. building (now M & P Office Supplies), corner of Main and Edward Streets. Castle Home Improvements & Construction Co., on Booth Drive, had the contract.
xxx xxx xxx

Meets Anne
Terri Surman, Manitoba Street, Stouffville, had the pleasure of meeting and talking with Canada's own Anne Murray, during a recent visit to Markville Shopping Centre, Markham.

Good Response
For a first time, students of Dickson's Hill Public School are providing gifts of canned goods and clothing and toys for needy families in the area. This program is operated by volunteers of the Family and Children's Services of York Region. "The response has been very good", secretary Mrs Sheila MacDowell told The Tribune. Donations will be picked up later this week and distributed before Christmas.

Signs Flattened
It would seem that local bakeries are jinxed when it comes to signs. The first to be 'bowed over' was at Stouffville Bakery on Main Street - toppled by a truck. A few days later, the sign outside the Villa Italian Bakery on Edward Street met a similar fate.

Open House
This month, Ray and Lois Wideman, R.R. 1, Unionville, celebrate their Silver Wedding Anniversary. To mark the occasion, an "open house" is planned by their family in their parents' honor. Tues., Dec. 28 from 2 to 4:30 and 7 to 9 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall of Oak Ridge Brethren in Christ Church, Aubrey Avenue, Oak Ridge.

Attend Concert
Jim and Jean Thomas and Mary-Lynn, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, attended the annual Christmas Choir Concert at Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Wednesday night, Susan Thomas is a 4th year student there and a member of the university's choir and band. Patti Richards, also of Stouffville, is a member of the same musical groups. Patti's a student in 3rd year Music.
