

Council within rights

Dear Editor:
The Town Council, in my opinion, was within its (legal) rights to walk out on the Concerned Citizens' delegation due to the fact the meeting, Dec. 7, had been adjourned.

There are times, however, when good public relations should take priority over parliamentary procedure.

The Council should have stayed and listened to what the spokesperson had to say or at least asked her to speak to the members in the privacy of the committee room. Turning their backs on the group was the height of bad manners. How quickly attitudes can change after an election!

Sincerely,
A Ratepayer

Town Clerk wins Big Brothers' art award

Eat Muir, Whitchurch-Stouffville's Clerk-Administrator, was the winner, Dec. 4 of a limited edition print by Glen Leates, offered as a top prize in a draw sponsored by the Big Brothers of York Region. Its value has been placed at $500.

The ticket was selected by Jim Glover, a Big Brothers Past-President and chairman of the organization's recent Art Show and Sale.

—Jim Holt.
