

Around Town

Library Closed
The Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library will be closed Dec. 24, Dec. 25, Dec. 26 and Dec. 27. Also, it will be closed Dec. 31; Jan. 1; Jan. 2 and Jan. 3. The chief librarian and members of staff wish all their patrons a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Brownies Enrolled
The Second Stouffville Brownie Pack enrolled fourteen girls, Dec. 9. The new members are: Lindsey Andrews, Stacey Betz, Amy Britton, Nicole Cain, Krista Cumming, Ainsley Dubowski, Lisa Garbert, Janet Muse, Shelley Nicholson, Leslie Palmer, Jodi Rennie, Cathy-Ann Rossini, Karen and Leanne Yorke.

Handicapped

Stouffville's three main shopping areas will soon have reserved parking for handicapped persons. One has already been established at the A & P Plaza. Others will be at Success Square and the IGA-Bank of Nova Scotia properties. Motorists are asked to keep these areas clear. This project has come about through the co-operation of local merchants and the Stouffville Lions Club.

Free Skating
The Whitechurch-Stouffville Recycling Group has rented the Stouffville Arena for free skating, Monday, Dec. 27 and Thursday, Dec. 30 from 1 to 3 p.m. This annual event is open to all ages.

Remember

Remember Heather Shaw and Diane Crowder? The "Forty-Three Cent Coffee Club" that meets at The Regal Restaurant in Stouffville every morning, surely will. Although Diane's whereabouts aren't exactly known, Heather's continued to keep in touch. Following holiday trips to Greece and Portugal, she's now back in England at a location called Bournemouth on the south coast. Heather describes it as "a beautiful place near the sea". She's working in a senior citizens' residence across the road from where she lives. In a recent letter, she asks to be remembered to all her (male) friends at The Regal and wishes each a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Heather and Diane were employed as waitresses at The Regal during the summer of 1981.

Games Night
The Silver Jubilee Club is holding a Games Night on New Year's Eve, Fri., Dec. 31 at 8 p.m. Members are invited to bring something for a buffet luncheon to be served around 10 p.m.

Heart Attack
The many friends of Roy Zeller, Park Drive North, will be pleased to know he's progressing well following a recent heart attack. Mr Zeller is convalescing at home.

From Australia
Janet Ann MacKay is visiting her grandfather, Reg. MacKay of Maytree Avenue, Stouffville. Janet lives in Australia where, on her departure, the temperature was 113 degrees (F). Janet Ann is looking forward to a white Christmas in Canada. She reports food prices about 20 per cent higher "back home" but no heating bills.

Two lovely weddings

Mr and Mrs Hans Reichenbach sign the register following their marriage, May 15 in Stouffville United Church. The bride is the former Elaine Duxbury, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm. E. Duxbury, Park Drive North, Stouffville. Hans and Elaine reside in Mississauga. —George Ross Studio.

Mr and Mrs Malcolm Smith sign the register following their marriage, August 7 in Stouffville United Church. The bride is the former Lynne Duxbury, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm. E. Duxbury, Park Drive North, Stouffville. Malcolm and Lynne are living in Don Mills. —George Ross Studio.

Animal Found
An 1,800 pound Simmental, valued at over $4,500, escaped recently from Lowe's (Becker's Milk) farm in Whitechurch-Stouffville. Manager Hans Weber told The Tribune, the animal travelled cross-country to Vandorf on Woodbine Avenue, before being corralled on a property there.

Saddles Stolen
Police are investigating the theft of saddles from two farms between Dec. 5 and 9. Three English saddles and two bridles, valued at $1,200, were taken from the tack room at Highest Stables in Whitechurch-Stouffville. A $500 saddle, belonging to Jennifer Coult of East York, was removed from a barn on Leslie Street near Gormley.

Night School
Registrations for courses in the 1983 Night School at Stouffville High, will be accepted Jan. 5 and 6.

Dedication

Rev. Craig Pitts received baby Shawn Christopher Ingram into the congregation of the Stouffville Pentecostal Church at a dedication service, Dec. 12. He is the son of Randy and Jeanie Ingram of Claremont. Present at the worship were Shawn's grandparents, Mr and Mrs Carlos Gonzales and Mrs Mary Ingram.

Damaged Already
Less than three weeks after the Stiver Bros. building at Edward and Main Streets was enhanced with new siding, eight dents are noticeable in the metal. "No wonder local business people are discouraged from fixing up their properties," said Jerry Mucci of Castle Home Improvements, Booth Drive.

Poinsettia Plant
The Tribune staff wish to say thanks to the Stouffville Horticultural Society for the beautiful poinsettia plant delivered to the Office last week.

Diamond Anniversary
Mr and Mrs Herb Thomas, Village Squire Apartments, Markham, will mark their 60th wedding anniversary, Dec. 27. In honor of the occasion, a family gathering will be enjoyed at Stouffville's Deer Park Inn, Sunday evening, Dec. 26.

"Open House"
Ray and Lois Wideman, R.R. 1, Unionville, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with an "Open House", Tues., Dec. 28 from 2 to 4:30 and 7 to 9 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall of Oak Ridges Brethren in Christ Church, Aubrey Avenue, Oak Ridges.

New Year's Dance
The Parents' Committee of the Ballantrae, Cubs and Scouts, is sponsoring a New Year's Eve Dance, Dec. 31 beginning at 8:30 p.m., in the Ballantrae Community Centre. Admission, including hot and cold buffet is $35 per couple. For tickets call 640-4907, 640-3301 or 473-2404.

Musical assembly

STOUFFVILLE - The rafters were ringing at Summitview School, Dec. 15, with the joyous sounds of Christmas carols.

Guest entertainers included the 50-member Stouffville Dist. Secondary School Sr. Band under the direction of Peter Samuelson and the Sr. Girls' Choir directed by Jim Rehill.

Pianist Jean Hammond accompanied the choir. The groups attended two assemblies, the first for pupils Grades 5 to 8 and the second for children Kindergarten to Grade 4.

Individual instruments and their sounds were explained and demonstrated. In addition to leading the choir, Mr Rehill also led the Summitview students through several seasonal favorites including a rousing rendition of "We Wish You A Merry Christmas".

Staff teacher Mrs Norma Card, said she was pleased to see so many former Summitview students now participating in the choir and band at the secondary level. It's extremely satisfying, she said, to know that many had received their initial introduction to vocal and instrumental music while pupils at Summitview.

Later in the week, the band and choir presented similar programs at Dickson's Hill and Ballantrae.

The Sr. Band and Choir of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, visited Summitview School, Wednesday, for a Christmas assembly. Here, tuba player David Darling provides Grade 4 student, Melissa Wilkinson of Church Street with a few pointers on how to handle the big horn. —Jim Thomas.
