Midget profile

Midget profile of the week is Lee Brown - one of three Browns on the team - who is a highly respected and very mature member of the Midget squad; which is why they probably chose him as captain. The right-winger is undoubtedly the team's best defensive player and he shares the line with Chris Brown and Bill Hutchison, who have combined to make a deadly combination with 101 points in 20 games.
 Lee has spent three years in allstar hockey, having played for Peewee, Bantam and Midget "A" squads. He started his hockey career at the age of seven years and is also involved in basketball and golf. He also plays trumpet for the senior band at Stouffville High.

Midland tournament

Silver stick entry

The Beckers Milk Midget team were away the weekend, trying their hand at tournament play in Huntsville. According to coach Bill Hutchison the team played well and despite being shunted out 5-3 by Unionville in the semi final they put up a good showing by disposing of Alliston 7-1 and Midland 4-1 in the eliminating rounds. Unionville were slated to meet Sharon in the final.
 The team will travel to Midland for the Silver Stick tournament, being held on Dec. 27 and 28 and Jan. 2.
 The tournament has entries from over forty teams and the winner will go on to Sarnia for entry in the national championships.
