Lighted homes

Contest winners

By Karen Marks
CLEAMONT - Clarendon certainly sparkled this year with all the houses lit up and shining. Winners of the Lions and Lioness house decorating contest were: 1-Steve Wideman, a $50 voucher from Lake's Corner Store; 2- Wilmot Hill, a $30 voucher from United Co-operatives; 3- Earl Pilkey, a $20 voucher from Clarendon Garage.

Clarendon Public School presented "A Clarendon Christmas," Dec. 20, and 21. The program began with Mr. Marsh and the Mini-Beats playing three songs. The kindergarten then presented "Snowflakes." The five-year-olds did a great job singing and telling us the Scandina vian legend about snowflakes. "If I Were a King" was a musical drama in which five young shepherds found the baby Jesus and came to believe in him as the Messiah. The principals: Courtney Graham, Tory Johnston, Mary Morrison and Chris Peddie, did a marvellous job singing their solos and telling us the story. They were ably supported by Pam Barber, Tim Evans and the primary and junior choirs. The music was delightful, and as usual, the whole concert a joy to watch.

Have you noticed the Block Parent signs at the entrances to town, signifying that we are now a Block Parent community? There are also signs in various homes, showing which ones are Block Parents. Look for them: show your children what they are. These homes are meant to be a refuge from danger, injury or trouble, for anyone in need. The Block Parent will notify the proper authority; he or she is not expected to invite a stranger into the home. Will you help this program become a success by becoming a Block Parent? Call Elva Reid, 640-2172, for information.

The Moms and Tots Drop In will begin in the new year on Jan. 4, and will continue each Tuesday between 9:30 and 11 a.m. All women are invited to join in this informal gathering. A special invitation is extended to newcomers to the community to get to know some of their neighbors. Bring along your children, to they can make new friends, too. Congratulations to Olive Vine, who celebrated her birthday on Christmas Day. Euchre winners from Dec. 21, were Marg Benson, Lena Ogden, Doris Devlin, Gord Wilson, Margaret Gall and Stanley Beach. Lucky draw winners were Evans Benson, Marg Gall and Ross Thompson. Christmas Day is past for another year. I hope it was a joyful one for everyone. I, for one, am glad to be done with the bustle and confusion of preparation. I enjoy much more the time when the dust has settled and the family can enjoy each other at a more leisurely pace. We'll spend this week playing Christmas games, catching up on sleep and baking the cookies that didn't get baked before Christmas. May your New Year be filled with blessings and good fortune.
