

Special meeting

By Karen Marks

CLAREMONT — A meeting of Claremont Recreation and Ratepayers' Association will be held in the upstairs auditorium of the Community Hall Jan. 11, at 7:30 p.m., for the purpose of organizing programs for the efficient use, repair and improvement of ice pad facilities. Ideas from all members of the community are needed.

On Dec. 30, the wedding of Joanne Haley and Ron Smith took place in Claremont United Church. Eleven-year-old Shane, Joanne's son, gave his mother away. Joanne is the daughter of Mary Borland and the late Gordon Borland of Claremont. Ron and Joanne will reside in Don Mills.

Dorothy Middleton of Stouffville and Anna Johnsen, Kitchener, were recent visitors with Olive Vine.

The new Parent Advisory meeting will be held Jan. 13, at 7 p.m., in the library of Claremont Public School.

The annual UCW meeting will take place on Jan. 10, at 8 p.m., in the home of Bernice Ward. Lillian Gauslin will be displaying antique glass. Roll Call is to bring a piece of antique glass.

Euchre winners from Dec. 28: Nettie Wilson, Lena Ogden, Ev Bryant, Tom Hammond, Evans Benson and Art Parratt. Lucky draw winners: Lena Ogden, Diane Exley and Mary Borland.

New Year as usual

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD — New Year's Eve was celebrated in Goodwood Hall in the usual way. The hall board was responsible for the big evening of dancing and visiting by the full house. The "sweet" music lasted until 2 o'clock. A beautiful lunch was served.

Mrs. Judy Macintosh and Mrs. Janet Harrison entertained neighbors on Tindall Lane at an "Open House," Dec. 28, at the Macintosh home.

Dora and Rienk Monsma entertained members of United Church choir, following practice, Dec. 22.

Print show

STOUFFVILLE — Printmakers will be featured at the next show in Latcham Gallery, beginning Jan. 9 and continuing through Jan. 31.

Lithographs, etchings and screen prints, including photo processes from the Toronto Co-operative Workshop, established in 1970, will be shown.

Library's holiday show thrills kids

A show called "Cat in the Hat" at the Public Library, Thursday, was a welcomed holiday treat for dozens of children (and their mothers) who, by then, were finding the vacation period a trifle long. Intrigued by it all is five-year-old Hilary Prue of R.R. 1, Goodwood. The actor is Kerry Mills of the Erwhon Theatre, Toronto.

—Jim Thomas.

Goodwood Christmas

Visitors from near and far

GOODWOOD — The Goodwood community was a busy place during the Christmas and New Year's weekends with the majority of folk either entertaining families and friends or travelling out of the area for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parratt had 16 members of the family around the Christmas tree, from as nearby as Claremont and from as far away as Penticton, British Columbia. Son Edward and his wife Heather and their three children were here from Seagrave.

Daughters, Rita Williams, her husband Harry from Penticton; Nancy Cammack, her husband Edward from Claremont, and families were also on hand. The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Baird was the scene of a large family gathering. Present were: Mrs. Baird's sister, Georgia and her husband, David Arnott, and their nine children, from Winchester; Mrs. Baird's parents, Ross and Virginia Hunt, of Port Dover; Mr. Baird's parents, Nellie and Cyril Baird, of Orono; and Mr. Baird's sisters, Nora Campbell and husband, Lorne, Toronto; and Sheila Baird, New York City.

Ron and Janet Arends enjoyed a family get-together in Toronto at the home of Ron's sister and brother-in-law June and Bassu Roy. Their parents, Dick and Violet Arends were there also as were brothers Rick Arends and wife Debbie; Doug and his wife Shirley, and their sister, Robin.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Franz Henke of R.R. 1, Goodwood, was daughter Joy of Toronto. Joy spent four days with her parents.

Lot Howe and wife Susan of Cleveland visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K.P. Howe for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Krefert visited with their daughter, Yvonne Adebear and husband Terry in Thunder Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Caird spent Christmas in Cloyne, near Belleville, at the home of Mrs. Caird's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wright. Also visiting there were her sister, Mary Wilson; Mr. Caird's mother, Mrs. Catherine Head; his two brothers, Gary of Uxbridge and Robert of Belleville; and his wife Isobel; and their sister and brother-in-law, Geraldine and Doug Croft of Peterborough.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Baker was the scene of a happy holiday gathering that included their daughter and son-in-law, Gertrude and Doug Sheridan and their two boys, Wade and Jason of Newmarket; their son and daughter-in-law, John and Christine Baker and their children, Michael, Andrea and Beth of Belleville.

PARENTAL GUIDANCE

WE WILL NOT BE UNDER-SOLD.

HOW OFTEN HAVE YOU FELT YOU PAID TOO MUCH FOR SOMETHING?

HOW OFTEN HAVE YOU SEEN SOMETHING ADVERTISED FOR A LOWER PRICE, BUT YOU DIDN'T FEEL LIKE GOING TO THAT STORE TO GET IT BECAUSE YOU DON'T NORMALLY SHOP THERE?

At Crothers Pharmacy we will honor all advertised special sale prices. If you receive an advertising circular in the mail or if you see something advertised in the newspaper, bring us the ad and if we have the merchandise we will match the price, provided...

1. YOU MUST BRING US THE AD OR COUPON AND LEAVE IT WITH US.
2. THE AD MUST BE FROM OUR AREA (Markham Area & North and East Metro) - NOT FROM OSHAWA, HAMILTON, BARRIE, MISSISSAUGA ETC.
3. IT MUST BE CURRENT (It must be a sale price that is still on)

We don't give things away. We can't promise to have the lowest prices on everything. But we can promise to try and give you low prices everyday.

Our Everyday Prices are generally low - certainly as low as any other pharmacy in Ontario. We have 10 sales per year that are advertised through circulars that we mail to over 13,000 homes in the area. And we will honor anybody else's sale prices on merchandise we carry.
