Visitors included Mr and Mrs Ken Betz; Keith and Linda Betz and family; Jake and Mary Baker; Mrs Ralph Burkholder; Tom and Sheila Smith and family; John and Joanne Longhurst; Marie Betz and Jason and Harry Baker of Toronto.

100th Birthday

Congratulations to Mrs Wm. Maxwell, Church Street, Markham, on the occasion of her upcoming 100th birthday, Jan. 15. Mrs Maxwell, the former Ida Tran was born on the 10th Concession of Markham Township and, with the exception of a short period spent in Pickering Twp., has resided in the Markham area all her life. Her family includes five daughters with all but one living in Markham.

Stouffville girl is lovely bride

Mr and Mrs Rick Caldaroni are pictured here following their wedding, Aug. 21, 1982 in St. Patrick's Church, Markham. The bride is the former Ingrid Huisman, daughter of Mr and Mrs Art Huisman, Blake Street, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Fred Caldaroni, R.R. 2, Markham. Following a honeymoon trip to Holland and Italy, the happy couple have taken up residence in Keswick.

Late Muriel Gibson

Talented artist

STOUFFVILLE — Muriel Gibson, 54, died last night staff at Union Villa. Her love of the residents there was returned ten fold.

Prior to her passing, she became ill with the flu. When her condition worsened, she was rushed by ambulance to hospital but died less than two hours later.

Besides her mother, she is survived by two sons, Glenn of Peterburg, Ont.; Greg of Stouffville; Gaye (Mrs Duncan Macdonald) of Richmond Hill and five grandchildren—Becky and Paul Gibson; Alexander and Laura Macdonald and Jeremy Gibson. There are two sisters, Helen in Halifax and Mary at Long Island, New York. Both were here for the funeral.

Rev. Jim Byrne, a neighbor and friend, conducted the service.

"All Nature Sings"

A unique program

STOUFFVILLE — A unique program will be featured at the Stouffville Missionary Church on Wed., Jan. 19 at 7 p.m.

It's a multi-media presentation entitled "All Nature Sings", using six 70 mm projectors on a 25 foot screen with full stereophonic sound. The photo work was done by Don Van Polen, an internationally known, award-winning outdoor photographer. He devotes himself full-time to making multi-media presentations with a distinctive Christian message that "God has much to teach us from nature and the Bible".

The evening's host will be Brian Lise, a representative of the Canadian Home Bible League. There is no admission charge but a free-will offering for Bible distribution will be taken. The hour-long program is something all family members will enjoy.

Dog Lost

A seven-month-old silver male German Shepherd dog belonging to Paul Brown is lost somewhere in the area of Kennedy Road (Sixth Line, Markham) and 18th Avenue. Anyone seeing one meeting this description is asked to call either 887-5344 or 291-2314.

Tribunes Available

For several years, residents in the Pine Orchard-Cedar Valley area of Whitechurch-Stouffville complained that Tribunes were not available at an outlet in either community. That problem has now been partially solved. Deliveries are now made every Wednesday afternoon to the Pine Orchard General Store, Conc. 5 and the Vivian Road.

"The Nations"

The Nations Quartet, considered one of the best gospel singing groups in Ontario, is coming to the Stouffville Pentecostal Church next Sunday evening (Jan. 16). Worship time is 6 p.m.

Hydro Commissioner

Gerald Pegg, Tindale Road, has been appointed a member of the Stouffville Hydro Commission, filling the position made vacant by the resignation of Ken Laushway. Mayor Eldred King will serve as Commission Chairman for 1983.

Say Farewell

The congregation of the Stouffville Pentecostal Church said farewell, Sunday evening to Jim and Jan Hicks, leaving this week for Pakistan to serve on the mission field there.

Parents' Meeting

On Thursday (Jan. 13), a parents' meeting will be held at Summitview School beginning at 7:30 p.m. Blake Williams of Travelways will discuss bus safety and explain how parents and children can co-operate to improve the system.

BRIAN LISE
Canadian Home Bible League

Incorrect Name

His name is James John Mills. He was born Christmas Night, (Dec. 25) at 10:30 p.m., in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital, the son of David and Sheila Mills, 102 Toronto Street North, Uxbridge. In announcing his arrival, last week, The Tribune (or the hospital) incorrectly identified James as Eric. We regret this. The bouncing baby boy tipped the scales at 7 lbs., 11 ounces.

Tribunes Available

For several years, residents in the Pine Orchard-Cedar Valley area of Whitechurch-Stouffville complained that Tribunes were not available at an outlet in either community. That problem has now been partially solved. Deliveries are now made every Wednesday afternoon to the Pine Orchard General Store, Conc. 5 and the Vivian Road.
