

A respected lady

STOUFFVILLE — This community paid its respects to a fine Christian lady at a service held from the O'Neill Funeral Chapel Saturday for Mrs. Winifred Timbers following her passing, Jan. 5 at Parkview Home, Stouffville.

MRS WIN TIMBERS

Born in Whitchurch Twp., the daughter of Mr and Mrs Asa Sider, she lived in the Gormley area for a time. Later, following her marriage, Stouffville became her home. Mr and Mrs Timbers lived to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary. He predeceased her Jan. 6, 1979.

Mrs Timbers was an active member of the Stouffville Horticultural Society. Her entries in local shows won many awards and her garden, at Winona Drive and Rupert Avenue was a floral beauty-spot.

She was an enthusiastic worker in the congregation of the Dickson's Hill Missionary Church, always the first to lend a hand whenever help was needed. These acts of kindness were remembered through floral tributes presented by both the Horticultural Society and the Dickson's Hill Cemetery Board.

Her family always came first. She followed their activities closely, particularly in the field of professional plowmanship where son Bob and grandsons Barry and Greg excelled. Bob lives at Uxbridge; a second son Bruce at Gormley; daughters Irene in Willowdale and Dorothy (Mrs Lloyd Doner) at Gormley. There are eight grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. Mrs Timbers is also survived by three brothers, Joseph at Parkview Home; Peter in Willowdale; Leonard at Vancouver and one sister Anna in Richmond Hill.

One of Mrs Timbers' many hobbies was amateur photography. She had thousands of slides, including many taken on various trips. She enjoyed travelling. Rev. Ed Sparks, pastor at Parkview Home and the Gormley Missionary Church, conducted the funeral service, Saturday, with interment, Dickson's Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were John Doner, Willy Wideman, Ronald Stutzman, Donald Timbers, Barry Timbers and Greg Timbers.
