

Squash team splits two matches

The four teams representing the Markham Racquet Club in the Toronto and District Squash League are back in full swing. The Mens 'B' Team split two matches losing a very tight decision by a 3-2 count to the University of Toronto and then rebounding to blast the Toronto Cricket Skating and Curling Club 5-0.

In the U. of T. match Fraser Cartwright, Wayne Moore and Dave Sampson lost while Maurice Hosford and John Miedzik won 3-0.

Last week, against T.C.S.C.C., Dave Sampson, Fraser Cartwright, John Miedzik, Wayne Moore and Maurice Hosford were victorious. The Mens 'b' Team is currently in second place.

The Mens 'C' Team is struggling. In a 4-1 loss to Ajax, Stan Cook Rob Lipsett, Paul Sampson and Jim Tettmar all fell. Haig Saadatian was the lone winner.

In a match against

Mayfair North, the 'C' Team fell 2-3. Paul Sampson, Peter Anderton and Iain Monteith were handed losses while Rob Lipsett and Jim Tettmar won by 3-0 scores.

The Mens 'D' Team is making a charge for a playoff spot. The team defeated Ajax 3-2 and Bridlewood 4-1. Both teams were ahead of Markham in the over-all standings.

Gerry Teoli won both of his matches, 3-1 against Ajax and 3-0 against Bridlewood. Larry Fell took 3-0 and 3-0 victories. Steve Matunin lost to Bridlewood but won against Ajax. Morris Mallon lost in his Ajax match up and won against Bridlewood. Matthew Martin lost to Ajax while Bob Pelland defeated Bridlewood.

The Ladies' 'D' Team continues to demolish its opponents. The latest victims were Forest Hills and Greenwin II, both losing to Markham 0-5.

Darlah Smith, Robyn Laursen and Ilona Pichler won against both clubs. Marlene Allott and Sandy Anderton posted victories in their Forest Hills matches. Munro took wins in while Marguerite their Greenwin II Ramsay and Karen games.

Goalies earn shutouts

Goaltenders David Fantini and Bryan Kruuk of the Ruby Records Minor Peewees were extremely stingy in a pair of league games last week.

The two combined for a 13-0 blanking of Bolton. Then Kruuk recorded a 4-0 shutout of Woodbridge.

Mathew Parsons notched four in the whipping of Bolton. Gengenbach counted a hat trick while Fred Cox and Roger Day added two apiece. Paul Smith and George Develiadis also found the range.

Denton Levy had four assists while

Gengenbach added three. Parsons, Develiadis and Marc Nyitrai had two apiece while single set ups went to David Stewart, Smith, Cox, Ryan McIntyre, Day and Todd McDowell.

In the blanking of Woodbridge, Cox (from McIntyre), Sean Brennan (from Parsons and Gengenbach), Develiadis (from Brennan and Parsons) and Parsons (from Cox and McDowell) were the goal getters.

In an exhibition game, Unionville bounced Humber Valley 6-2.

Cox counted two while singles went to Parsons, Levy, Gengenbach and Day.

Gengenbach, McDowell, Parsons, Nyitrai, Droey and Smith picked up assists.

Midgets win

The James Sabiston Ltd. Midget Jets doubled the count on the opposition last week.

Unionville dumped Port Perry 8-4 and took care of Woodbridge 4-2.

Rod Beckett led the way against Port Perry counting a hat trick. Steve Szalay added two while single tallies went to Mark Mateer, Enzo Rossi, Brad Adams and Steve Wallis.

Szalay and Steve Lasitz looked after the scoring in the Woodbridge tilt netted two tallies each. Adams had three assists while Beckett had two.

In an exhibition contest, Unionville edged Cannington 5-4 as Adams notched a pair. Singles went to Beckett, Dave Brown and Doug Carlisle.

Carlisle had a pair of assists. Brown, Takahashi, Beckett, Chris McKenna and Steve Wallis added singles.

Peewee Selects very impressive

How good are the Markham Peewee Selects? Well don't as the Don Mills Double A MTHL team. Markham downed it 3-1 in a most impressive showing.

Markham also blanked the Aurora Selects 3-0 and the Milton Selects 4-0 in other exhibition play.

In the Don Mills contest, Matt Knuckle, Greg Shelton and Anthony Cox were the marksmen. Assists went to Jamie Wile, Chris Chabossol and Mike Morrison.

In the Aurora contest, Cox counted a pair while Chabossol added the single. Paul Pachis, Nigel Taylor, Wile and Chabossol picked up assists.

Peter Hutcheson paced the attack against Milton scoring twice and adding an assist. Chabossol and Wile also hit the mark.

Shelton had two assists. Chabossol and Ken Anderson added singles.

Donald Chong and Jeff Johns split the goaltending chores in all three games.

Fashions were the subject of the Markham Rotary Club's Bridal Bonanza, held Monday night at the Markham Community Centre (old arena). Model Lynn Hale shows off an organza printed sheer bridesmaid gown with a bustle back. Silk flowers were from Tim Clark's Flowers.
