

Coach of week

It would be difficult to miss Ron Arends, even in the largest crowd. At around 6'3", the ex-Argo defensive half-back (he played with them between 1966-71) is very noticeable. He is also noticeable at the Arena over the weekends, where he coaches the atom Conlin Motors team along with Al Edwards.

With 8 years coaching behind him he seems to have a natural talent for the task and a nice rapport with his enthusiastic team. He has two sons of his own, both in minor hockey, Jason, 10 years, plays on defense for Conlin, while 13 year old Kirk is on the Canadian Tire bantam squad.

Ron feels that minor hockey has improved considerably since his days, but would like to see the kids get more ice-time. He also feels that it is not so easy to coach once the players get to Pee-wee age. "They are pretty set in their ways by then," he observes.

A formidable player himself, Ron plays right-wing for the AHL Stouffville Travel and Oldtimer Classics teams. He expects Travel to finish second in the league standings but backs them to win the playoffs.
