

Luncheon initiates town Heart Fund campaign

Last Thursday saw the start of this year's Ontario Heart Foundation appeal. Local organizers (l to r) Gail Richards, Campaign Chairwoman, Sherry Inksetter, Co-ordinator for York Region and Lovanna Sanders, met with local chapter members at Lovanna's home to discuss plans to top last year's figure of $10,000.

Active at ninety

Congratulations are extended to Agnes McCallum, formerly of Main Street East, Stouffville, on the occasion of her 100th birthday, Jan. 22. Mrs McCallum, now living at Port Hope Villa, a self-care residence, was honored at a gathering in the Legion Hall at Grafton. Jack and Barbara Pollard and daughter Jo-Ellen of Stouffville were there along with a niece, Betty Hawthorne of Markham. Mrs McCallum is Barbara's great-aunt. "When we left Saturday evening, she was still up dancing," Barbara said. Along with dozens of cards and messages of congratulations, Mrs McCallum received a letter from Queen Elizabeth.

ENJOYABLE HOLIDAY

Mrs Velma Rawson, Hawthorne Avenue, Stouffville, has returned home following an enjoyable six-week vacation with her daughter and son-in-law, Roberta and George Broadbent and family of Vancouver. Mrs Rawson, accompanied by her granddaughter Kristin, joined Mr and Mrs Broadbent for three weeks of warm weather and sunshine in Maui, Hawaii, over the Christmas season.

REV. STANLEY PAISLEY

The death is reported of Rev. Stanley Paisley, a United Church pastor, known to many in the Whitchurch-Stouffville area. Rev. Paisley, 85, passed away Jan. 16 at Nattawa, Ont. Service was held from the United Church there. Rev. Paisley, brother of Mrs Eugene Baker, Rupert Avenue, spent his boyhood years north of Island Lake. He held several ministerial charges including Chatsworth, Sprucedale and Thornbury.

MAYOR-GUEST SPEAKER

Mayor Eldred King will be the guest speaker, Feb. 8 when the Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce holds a dinner meeting at the Regal Restaurant, Main Street, commencing at 6:15 p.m. The cost is $14 per person. For reservations call either Bruce Stapley (640-2608) or Chamber secretary Sherry Spencer (640-5993).

Around Town

"OPEN HOUSE"

The Levi Diller family is holding an "Open House" in the Friendship Room of Parkview Home, Stouffville, in honor of Ada Diller's 90th birthday. The gathering of friends and relatives is planned for this Sunday (Jan. 30) from 2 to 5 p.m.

SKI RAMBLE

With a little co-operation from the weatherman, the Public Library will hold its annual cross-country ski ramble on Sunday (Jan. 30) beginning at 1 p.m. from the Library. Later, when the participants return, hot chocolate will be served.

HOLD DANCEATHON

The Students' Council of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School is holding a Danceathon this Friday evening (Jan. 28) in the gymnasium. The event is for a worthwhile cause—support of the school's foster child. To date, about 40 students have signed up with many more expected by dance time. Thirty dollars in pledges per couple is required with the hope that a minimum of $450 will be raised. Two students have already received pledges of more than $100 each.

INVESTMENT PROGRAM

A seminar on investment activities will be held at the Town Library every Wednesday evening during the month of February. The registration fee for the four 2-hour sessions is $20. Discussions will be led by a representative from the firm of Pitfield Mackay Ross, one of the leading firms in the investment field.

VILLAGE CRAFTS

The Markham Guild of Village Crafts is holding an "Open House" of students' work, Feb. 12 and 13 from 12 noon to 4 p.m. at the Guild Office, 140 Main Street North. Registrations for spring classes will be accepted Feb. 15 from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. at the same location.

CHANGE IN TIME

A button-making program will be held at the Town Library, Sat., Feb. 12. However, there's a change in time. Instead of 3 p.m., it's now 2 p.m. Participants are asked to take note of the one hour difference. Adults and children are invited.

KINDERGARTEN

Kindergarten registration at Summitview School will be held on Wed., Feb. 2 from 1 to 4 and 7 to 8:30 p.m. To qualify, a child must be five years old by Dec. 31, 1983. Proof of birth date and immunization records are essential.

TO FLORIDA

Mr and Mrs Charles Ratcliff, R.R. 4, Stouffville, have departed for warmer climes in the sunny South.

O.E.S. HOLDS DANCE

The Markham Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual dance, Sat., Feb. 19 beginning at 8 p.m., in the Masonic Hall, Albert and Joseph Streets, Markham. For tickets ($7.50 each or $15 per couple) phone 294-2544. Refreshments will be served.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Leanne Sanders, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, is pleased to be home and back at school following treatment in York County Hospital, Newmarket, for a painful virus.

ADULT FELLOWSHIP

A pleasant evening is assured when the Adult Fellowship Group of the Stouffville Missionary Church will hold their annual banquet, Sat., Feb. 12 at 6:30 p.m., in the Victoria Square Community Centre. Guest speaker will be Rev. Wilson Wiley, pastor of a new Missionary Church at Newmarket. Special music for the occasion will be provided by The Wright Singers. For tickets ($10), the contact people are Vana Leonard and Herb Hoover.

BUYS NEW YORKER

Les Wilson Motor Sales of Stouffville, now an authorized dealer for Chrysler cars as well as Dodge trucks, has sold its first Chrysler New Yorker. Owner of this beautiful automobile is Fred Castle, Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville.

RENOVATIONS

Major renovations are underway at the Regal Restaurant and Ken May Real Estate on Main Street, Stouffville. Bob Bruce Construction has both contracts.

SPAGHETTI DINNER

The Grade 7 Parents' Committee at Orchard Park School, is holding a spaghetti dinner, Thursday evening, Feb. 3 in the Stouffville Legion Hall with sittings at 5:30 and 7 p.m. The full-course meal includes dessert, tea or coffee. Tickets are five dollars (adults and students); three dollars for children ten years and under. For additional information call 640-3552.

FLORIDA HOLIDAY

Joe and Mary Lewis, Winlane Apartments, Stouffville, accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, John and Helen Caselman of Scarborough, left Sunday for a two-week holiday in Florida.

DISCUSS COMPUTERS

"The computer age" will be the subject of discussion at a Summitview Public School parents' meeting, Tues., Feb. 15 in the gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.
