

Another well remembered name from the past, who will be on the NHL-Clipper oldtimer program when the teams meet at the arena on March 27, is Aggie Kukulowicz. Aggie, who played centre with the New York Rangers from 52-53, went on to Detroit from 54-56 before suffering severe back injuries in a game against the Blackhawks. A member of Canada's first national team in 1964, Aggie also spent five years in Russia with the External Affaires department and Air Canada. He is also the official Russian translator for Team Canada and the National Hockey League. With him (right) is Bob McNeil, Clipper Oldtimer captain who arranged the NHL Oldtimer visit. Jim Holt
