Color is the key

STOUFFVILLE — Are you color-keyed to your wardrobe? Do you have clothes hanging in the closet that you're ashamed to wear?

This need never again occur. The solution to this problem is a visit to The Marguerite Shoppe at 21 Main Street West in Stouffville. There, you'll be introduced to Julie Roy, a professional in this field. The service is called "Creative Colors".

"It's popular in the United States but comparatively new to Canada," store proprietor Joyce Spensley told The Tribune. To "color-key" a customer takes about 1 1/2 hours. The cost is sixty dollars.

"What Nature has provided is the best for each of us," Joyce said, "it's what each of us was meant to have". She notes, however, there's nothing wrong with enhancing it a little".

Mrs. Spensley stresses the fact that clothing must suit one's skin tone. Often, she said, one "fights" the other.

She claims, once the procedure is complete and a customer sees the improvement, "she can't believe it".

"Creative Colors" isn't meant only for women, but girls too," Joyce says. It provides self-confidence.

And just to prove she's not chauvenistic, men are welcome also; in fact, some companies, whose male executives are very much in the public eye, demand it.

When "color-keyed", a woman (or man) carries a chart in her purse or his wallet, to be used when purchasing new clothes. "This way," she says, "one can be sure she's (he's) buying right".

The Marguerite Shoppe is the only store in the area to provide this service. The number to call for an appointment is 640-3325.
