

Recommends "new look" Main Street

Alex Crate (right) of Willowdale, accepts a gift from Stouffville Business Improvement Area Chairman David Barthau, following a dinner meeting at the Regal Restaurant, Wednesday night. A participant in the discussions was Mayor Eldred King (left). The B.I.A. is anxious to improve the appearance of the downtown business section to make shopping an enjoyable experience. Mr. Crate presented recommendations as to how this can be done.

Plan Seminar
Drug use

STOUFFVILLE — The topic of Drug Abuse will be discussed by representatives of the York Regional Police Department at a meeting in Latham Gallery of the Town Library, Thurs., April 28.

The presentation is being sponsored by the Chemical Lifestyle Information Council. Time of the event is 8 p.m.

On Sunday, May 29, the C.L.I.C. is holding its first public meeting in St. James Presbyterian Church, Main Street East, Stouffville. Purpose of the gathering is to provide an opportunity for all citizens to find out more concerning the Chemical Lifestyle Information Council's programs. Public support is requested.

Discuss suicides

STOUFFVILLE — Over a three-week period, (Thursday evenings), the Youth of Stouffville Pentecostal Church are hosting panel discussions on the subject "Teenage Suicide In The Eighties" with emphasis on the suicide rate in York Region.

The dates are April 28; May 5 and May 12.

Experts in the field of suicide will attend. They'll explain the causes and the cure.

Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m.

WEIGHT WATCHERS WORKS

Joan Appleton: 40 pounds from goal. Joan Today

After 10 years of seesawing up and down I finally learned through the Weight Watchers program how to shed these pounds and keep them off. It's terrific to be able to follow the maintenance plan and not feel I'm always on a diet. It works for me, it can work for you too.
