

Shelly's a star already shining

STOUFFVILLE — The future's bright for the Stouffville Figure Skating Club. With stars like thirteen-year-old Shelly Coughlan of Dorman Drive already winning spectator applause, there's reason for optimism within the executive ranks.

Shelly's an exceptionally strong skater, despite the fact it was only three years ago that she began taking the sport seriously. She has two trophies and two medals to her credit including a first in her Interpretive Class at the 1983 Inter-Club. Her coach is Julia Fagiani.

"I love it," says Shelly, even though, at times, she grows a bit weary of the countless hours of practice. She enjoys soccer too but figure skating's still No. 1.

Shelly's currently working on her 1st Figure and her Junior Bronze Free-Style.

As with competition in any sport, there's nervous tension involved. But Shelly doesn't mind, in fact she likes it. But she enjoys Carnivals even more and is already looking forward to the next one in '85.

Request aid

Dear Jim: As you are aware, we are continuing to collect food and clothing for distribution among a number of agencies in Toronto.

We have been delighted with the support of the community.

Through The Tribune, we wish to stress this as an ongoing need, particularly the need for food.

Christ Church is open every week day from from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. to receive donations. Gifts of cash are also appreciated. This money will be used to buy food in bulk.

In a recent letter received from the Scott Mission (one of six places we support), they tell of an almost 20 percent increase in families coming to them for groceries in 1982 and, in some months, an increase of over 40 percent. The trend is continuing in 1983.

Continued support of this project is appreciated.

Sincerely,
Rev. Philip Poole,
Rector, Christ Church,
Stouffville.

GORMLEY Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs Alex Chalmers, April 27 at 7:30 p.m. The roll call will be answered with a humorous story. Members are asked to bring a jellied salad. Fees are now due. Annual reports will be given and new officers will be elected. Mrs Norm Brown will present the Gazette. A plant sale is planned.
