

"Girl Next Door"

A model 'sitter'

By Jim Thomas
CLAREMONT — Seventeen-year-old Debra (Debbie) Beverley knows the meaning of responsibility. Because of this, she's one of the community's busiest babysitters.

In addition to assisting Shirley Pilkey at the Claremont Day-Care Centre, she looks after small children, two-to-three evenings a week, while their parents are away.

Debbie's our "Girl Next Door". The youngest in the family of Ivan and Helen Beverley, Debbie enjoys being busy. With these extra-curricular chores plus Grade 11 studies at Pickering High, there's little "free time" left.

When she does have a few spare hours, she's content to spend them right at home. Her parents have a full-size billiard table that's available to Debbie and her friends. When the weather's right, they enjoy the convenience of a backyard pool.

Debbie admits she loves to shop—either Oshawa, Sheridan Mall, Pickering or Stouffville.

She plans to complete Grade 12 at P.H.S. Math is her best subject.

Seventeen-year-old Debbie Beverley of Claremont is a Grade 11 student at Pickering High. In addition to her studies, she's one of the community's busiest babysitters. Debbie's a lover of country and western music, with George Jones and Loretta Lynn two favorite stars.

Laymen take service

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD — The laymen within the congregation at Goodwood United Church conducted the service Sunday with Bill Williamson in charge assisted by Mary Mitchell, Susan Winn and Diana Jefferson. The address was delivered by Kees Koster with Maude Bell at the piano. Members expressed appreciation of the lovely table-centre left at the church from Tina Brophy's wedding, Friday. Congratulations to Don and Diane Bunker on the arrival of Roger Andrew,

April 14 at York County Hospital, Newmarket. With daughter Jill, the happy parents now have a millionaire's family. The next Lions-sponsored bingo is Wed., May 4 at 7:30 p.m., in Goodwood Hall. Ella Symes and Elsie Boland were honored by the Goodwood Pot-Luckers last week on the occasion of their birthdays. The gathering was held at Flossie Wagg's in, Stouffville. The Christian Women's Coffee Hour, Friday, was well attended. A display by Ann's Fabrics of Stouffville was one of the features. The Goodwood Community Park and Centre Association is sponsoring a dance this Saturday (April 30) in the Hall. Tickets ($8.00 a couple) are available at the door.
