

Town to improve hazardous intersection

In an effort to improve the intersection of Main West and Edward Street in Stouffville, Town Council has purchased the Sliver property on the north-west corner for $40,000. This site will provide parking spaces for 14 cars. At present, both store owners and customers leave their vehicles on the street.

Late George Allison

Success in business

UXBRIDGE — George Allison of Uxbridge, R.R. 1, passed away in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, Friday, April 15, 1983. Born at Keswick, May 19, 1909, he grew up on his father's farm north of Holt. On Sept. 17, 1941, he married Edna Rye. They resided in Mount Albert, Stouffville and later Uxbridge, R.R. 1. As a young man, George was strong and enthusiastic, becoming successfully involved in many types of work and business including hard rock mining, painting, dealer in implements, life insurance, farming, a dairy and real estate. He held a real estate broker's license nearly thirty years. Mr Allison enjoyed meeting people. His kind and cheerful personality won him many friends.

He was a participant in many sports including boxing, hockey, baseball and curling. He competed in the Ontario Lawn-Bowling Finals. He also enjoyed music. George faithfully attended church and although converted in his early thirties, it was in his later years that his faith in Christ became strong and vibrant. He endured many months of illness without complaint and left a glowing testimony of God's Grace. Left to mourn his loss are his wife Edna and one brother, Ronald of Mount Albert. He will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered by the Rye families and close friends. Hundreds of friends called at the Low and Low Chapel, Uxbridge. Service was held Monday, April 18 at 2:30 p.m. The ministers were Rev. Brown of Uxbridge Baptist Church and Rev. Vanderwan of Uxbridge Presbyterian Church. Mrs Barbara Brown of Holt Free Methodist Church was the soloist. Pallbearers were friends and neighbors — George Irwin, Ross Creighton, Elmer Wilson, Hayden John, Fred Wilson and Gould Barton. Interment was made at Mount Albert Cemetery.
