

In conjunction with the Stouffville Bowling Lanes, York Region Big Brothers recently held a bowl-a-thon fund raising drive. Top pledge getter was local resident Ron Clements (centre), who raised $318 in pledges. Presenting him with a commemorative plaque is Keith Leitch, Stouffville area team captain. Alley owner John Wilson (right) was also commended by Big Brothers, receiving a service award certificate for allowing them free use of the lanes.

Rookie bowler

Karen VanderHenne of Baker Street, Stouffville, has sprung quite a surprise on local bowling pundits. The first year rookie has suddenly found herself scheduled to play against the cream of the province when she competes in the Provincial Bowling Championships in Oshawa next month.
A regular player on the Thursday afternoon ladies team, Karen considers herself an average player who got lucky. The truth, though, is that she stays cool under pressure. When asked if she felt at all nervous about the forthcoming championships, she replied "I've got used to the tension, I'm not nervous any more."

Karen may not be, but I'm sure the rest of us will be biting our nails when the big day arrives.

Karen VanderHenne, who has fought her way through six elimination tournaments to get to the top, goes to the Ontario Provincial Championships in Oshawa next month. Karen is part of a five-woman team representing York region.
