

"Girl Next Door"

A skating coach

By Jim Thomas
STOUFFVILLE — Eighteen-year-old Dawn Yule of 84 Stuart Street, Stouffville, graduated last June from S.D.S.S., and is presently employed on the staff of Eddie Blacks Limited. The company's new office location is 14th and Warden Avenues, Markham.

school. Although Alan's a member of the Canadian Armed Forces and stationed at Pette-wawa, he's able to get home most weekends. He's presently participating in "war exercises" near Wainright, Alberta. Fortunately, says Dawn, with a sigh of relief, the "enemy" are using rubber bullets.

Dawn enjoys her position, particularly the people she works with—most her own age.

She's our "Girl Next Door". Dawn and her family, two brothers, Wayne and Raymond and a sister, Leeanne, moved to Stouffville from King City, seven years ago. She likes it here, "it's close to everything," she says.

The transition from school to the workaday world wasn't difficult. She credits the experience gained at Widfield Drugs in Stouffville with helping her acquire her present position.

Camping and skating are favorite pastimes. She holds a diploma from a Power Skating School in Bramalea and has been coaching here for several seasons.

Dawn enjoys travelling. She's been to British Columbia and England and hopes to visit California some time in the future.

What do teens want most in Stouffville? A movie theatre and a new arena, she says.

Dawn and boyfriend Alan Davis have known one another since
