Late Ruth Kaiser Longtime resident

STOUFFVILLE - This community lost a long-time resident, May 3, in the passing of Mrs Ruth Kaiser following two weeks in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.
Mrs Kaiser, the former Ruth Field, was born at Goodwood, daughter of Darius and Aldice (Nighswander) Field. For the past 49 years, she had lived on Victoria Street in Stouffville.
Mrs Kaiser loved flowers. She received much enjoyment and satisfaction out of caring for her garden. She was a member of the Stouffville Horticultural Society; the Silver Jubilee Club and the Friendship Club. She was also a member in the congregation of Stouffville United Church.
Mrs Kaiser loved music. She was an accomplished pianist and on occasions, played the mouth organ.
Surviving is one daughter, Grace (Mrs Joe Murray) of Stouffville and one granddaughter, Julie, also of Stouffville.
The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Cecil Tiller, was held from the O'Neill Chapel, Friday, with interment, Goodwood Cemetery. The pall-bearers were - Harry Schell, Bud Sanderson, Wesley Schell, Bob Parish, Jack Ralston and Donald Roper.
