

Rev. Philip Poole of Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville, has a summer assistant. She's Patricia Blythe of Scarborough, a third year student attending Trinity College, Toronto. —Jim Thomas

Personal pastor

STOUFFVILLE — The congregation of Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville, has rolled out the welcome mat for Patricia (Pat) Blythe, student pastor here this summer.

Mrs Blythe, presently enrolled at Trinity College, Toronto, will be working in close co-operation with Rev. Philip Poole during the months of May, June and July.

This lovely lady with the warm smile and outgoing personality, is originally from Belleville but now lives in Scarborough with husband Mel and their two sons, Scott, 11 and John, seven.

Pat says she's looking forward to the challenge—the services, the visiting and generally "getting involved". She conducted her first worship here May 8.

Her home church is St. Andrew's Anglican at Victoria Park and Hwy. 401. With a husband, two pre-teen sons and a home to look after, how does she find time for pastoral care.

"It takes a lot of juggling," she admits, "but I've managed so far". "I believe you can always find time for the things you want to do". Pat readily admits, however, this wouldn't be possible without the full co-operation of her husband.

Pat was assigned to Stouffville by the Parish Training Program. It's her first association with Christ Church, the congregation and its rector.

"I'm looking forward to the experience," she told The Tribune. To which this newspaper would hasten to reply: "All roads leading to Christ Anglican Church are two-way streets".
