

Local to head Brothers

Big Brothers of York Region have elected their slate of officers for the next year, and a local man tops the list.

The new Big Brothers president is Peter Grosskurth, a local publisher and businessman. He was chosen at a recent directors meeting held in Oak Ridges.

Mr. Grosskurth, president of Canadian Business Forms and publisher of Markham-Thornhill Month, was an active Big Brother in Metro Toronto for several years. The past seven years he has been involved with numerous committees, and has sat as an executive member of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers of York.

As the new chairman, Mr. Grosskurth's goal is the rejuvenation and strengthening of the Big Brother agency. His fellow officers are Dr. David Ruegg, first vice-president; Jack Hurst, second vice-president; Paul Berdette, treasurer; Sergeant Jim Mennie, secretary; and past president, Jim Wolfe.
