

"Swingers"

By Sandra Redshaw

CLAREMONT — Tennis Club registrations will be held in the clubroom at the Claremont Park this Sunday, May 15 from 1 to 3 p.m. The cost per family is $7.50. Lessons will begin Tues., June 7 from 5 to 10 p.m. The cost for 10 one-hour lessons is $20. A Thursday morning ladies program is also planned from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Babysitting is extra. The mixed doubles round-robin is Wednesday evenings. A drop-in junior program for children seven to 14 years is planned for one morning each week with supervision. The club is organizing a Ladder Competition with a trophy going to the player who finishes on the top rung at the end of the season. A draw from a list of interested players will establish starting positions. Participants move up the ladder by challenging players above them.

Get-well wishes go out to Annie Porter, a patient in Ajax-Pickering Hospital.

Mary Borland and Marge Samarillo were in hospital but are now home.

The Committee of Stewards is holding a Mammoth Yard Sale, Sat., May 14 beginning at 9 a.m. at Claremont United Church. The United Church congregation will worship at the Baptist Church on Sunday, May 15.

On Mothers' Day, several children were received for baptism at Claremont United Church including—Tina Louise Jones, daughter of Howie and Cathy Jones; Jeffrey Daryl Bradshaw, son of Daryl and Brenda Bradshaw; Joseph Wilmot Hill, son of Frank and Sandra Hill; and Ryan John Christopher Jackson, son of Wayne and Dale Jackson. The Christian Family Service was conducted by Chad Redshaw, Deanna Evans, Chris Peddie and Patti Evans along with all members of the Sunday School.

As The Tribune's Claremont correspondent, I'm interested in hearing of all community events and newsworthy items. Please give me a call at 649-2515.
