Dinner show is successful

"Hits of The Blitz," a musical revue which played recently at Fernando's Restaurant, was such a success the owner is thinking of booking another show. "It was more than a success," said owner Fernando Marto. "It was a sell out from day one." Mr. Marto said the only reason another show is not already playing is that the dining hall has several prior reservations. He says the same troupe of actors and writers involved in the first production are now working on a new show with new material. He hopes to book them for September or October. In the meantime he may book a new show similar to the Second City Dinner Theatre.

Dance troupe to play in Markham

Ballet Anore, a newly formed troupe of dancers will strut their stuff on stages throughout York Region starting at Markham District High School on June 1.

The six dancers who have trained at schools such as Ryerson, York University and George Brown College will be led by Peter Stanton who performed with a variety of European troupes before returning to Canada. The Ballet will offer jazz, contemporary, and neo area.

The Ballet Anore will appear on June 1 at Markham District High School, June 2 at Thornhill Secondary School, June 3 at Williams High School in Aurora. On June 8 they will perform at King City Secondary School. They will wind up at Huron Heights School in Stouffville on June 9.

All performances will take place at 8:15 pm. There will be a $4 general admission charge for all ages.

The variety will make the show interesting for both the audience and the dancers.

"People in suburbia need variety," Mr. Stanton said in an interview. "This plays towards the public yet gives the dancers something to do."

Mr. Stanton says the troupe was only formed recently. As a Newmarket resident he decided he would like to premiere in York Region because of his familiarity with the
