Diggers buried

In exhibition play over the weekend, the Stouffville Stingers ladies fastball team defeated the Aurora Diggers 9-4; stealing no less than eight bases in nine attempts. Vicki Moffat led the Stouffville attack with four singles, batting 1000, while Michele Keith was 2 for 3 at the plate.

Denise Coppins, Debbie Coxworth and Barb Goudie gave the Stingers a 3-1 lead in the first, with Terry Cummings counting in the second.

Third innings runs came from Moffat, Kathy Wilkins and Ruth Beckett, closing off the third with a 7-2 lead.

Aurora added two more runs in the seventh, but were outclassed by the hungry Stingers who finished the eighth with runs from Moffat and Ruth Vollet.

Sharing mound duties were Mary Albright and Julia Drew.

The Stingers, intermediate finalists last season, have ten of their veteran squad back this year and have moved up into the senior division.

Well known faces on the bench are: Sandy Ramer, Ann Holden, May Albright, Joyce Adams, Julia Drew, Kathy Wilkins, Liz Lacoursiere, Ruth Beckett, Barb Goudie and Michele Keith.

New to the squad are: Denise Coppins, Cheryl (grand slam) Singleton, Debbie Coxworth, Jannette Cooper, Dawn Voss, Terry Cummings, Vicki Moffat, Mary Zet-tell and Ruth Vollet.

Coaches Cliff Dunkeld and Joe Barber are back, with the welcome addition of Frank Hendy. Frank is certain to be a big boost to the team, having coached several Clarendon teams to championship status. The team is slotted into the Metro league and plays home fixtures on Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m.

Sponsors this year are: Schell Lumber, Stouffville Legion (Branch 459), Stouffville District Credit Union and George Ross Photo.

The club will be voting for on the appointment of a new executive; and members will be able to pick up their Carnival photographs after the meeting.

REFLECTIONS

Markham Pharmacy

You can always count on a smile and a friendly word from the staff at Markham Pharmacy. For more than a dozen years Gord Turney and his very capable staff have taken great pleasure in serving the people of Markham.

Gord, who bought the store from Reef Wilson in January 1969, has always been an involved member of the business community. Markham Pharmacy sponsors local baseball, hockey and soccer teams and Gord is a charter member and past president of the Unionville Progress Club.

The staff of Markham Pharmacy clearly enjoy their work. Their cheerful smiles and helpful attitudes make it a pleasure shopping for everyday items, and filling prescriptions. If Gord isn't behind the counter you'll find Doug Summer at your service. Doug has enjoyed his eight years at Markham Pharmacy and is dedicated to giving you prompt, courteous service.

Several of the girls have worked in the store for many years and developed a genuine interest in the health and well being of their many regular patrons. Among the friendly faces behind the counter is Lois Clarridge. Lois has worked at Markham Pharmacy for almost twenty-two years. Marg Low and Marje Davis have been there for more than twelve years each and Marg Hamilton has had ten years of experience with Markham's friendly Main Street Pharmacy. All are devoted, helpful and work to make everyday shopping into a cheerful and pleasant pastime.

If you're looking for health and beauty aids, Laura Secord candies, greeting cards or other sundry items feel free to drop in to Markham Pharmacy and buy them from a cheerful staff who have your needs at heart.

Dominion Coal and Building Materials

With a blend of old style friendliness and up to date retailing Dominion Coal and Building Supplies is an accurate reflection of the communities it serves; a combination of the best of old and new.

From its location in a store originally developed by the Stiver family as a feed and coal mill, Dominion Coal and Building Supplies went into the building supplies business 15 years ago when it was acquired by George J. Spring.

Since then it's been serving the community by offering a range of building materials and supplies, from sand to stucco, drywall to masonry as well as friendly across the counter advice on their use. Since George J. Spring created the business it has grown into four stores throughout the Toronto area.

Under the leadership of manager Mark Forrester, a resident of Unionville, the staff is friendly, knowledgeable and ready, able and willing to work with the tradesman or homeowner with all building needs.

They also offer a speedy delivery service to distribute their wide range of products. Feel free to drop in and browse through an old time store offering modern products at agreeable prices.

They are located in Unionville, just north of Hwy. 7 off Kennedy Road. Hours Monday to Friday are from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Dominion Coal and Building Supplies is proud of the heritage, it shares with the community it serves. They look forward to maintaining their high level of service for many years to come.
