

Slowpitch teams slug it out

Doug Feasby of Betz Pools put in some good hits in Sunday afternoon's final against Mar-kham's Calathumpians, The game went into nine innings before Betz scooped the $500 top prize.

Brad Steel played a superb game on Sunday afternoon, hitting three home runs for Betz. On deck is Doug Todd, who hit a three run homer at the bottom of the ninth to clinch the tourney

Buttermaker Art Nicholson treads lightly to make first base against the Scorpions, who went down 3-0 in the championship round, but not before giving the Buttermakers a hard fought game.

The Buttermakers first baseman, Dave Slack, completes a line-drive double play in taking out the Scorpion first base runner in Sunday morning's game.

Reflecting the great sportsmanlike atmosphere that prevailed throughtout the tourney, pitcher Keith Betz congratulates the Calathumpian catcher on a great game.

Dan Wendorf slides safely into third in the closing stages of the championship game, which saw Betz and Calathumpians tied 11-11 at the end of the seventh.

It was a very weary Betz team that lined up for their rewards at the end of Monday's play. In addition to the prize money, all players received a beautiful beer stein, which they put to good use as soon as the handshaking ceremonies were over.