

Birthdays banner

By Sandra Redshaw

CLAREMONT — A surprise birthday party was held Friday (May 20) in honor of Carolyn Evans. Connie Goodwin of Capreol (Carol's sister), made certain everyone was aware of the occasion by placing a large banner across the street, east of the Four Corners. Also a sign was erected at the end of Barclay Street asking motorists to "honor if they like older women". One of the Evans' neighbors wondered why, on Saturday afternoon, so many strangers were tooting their car horns (at him, he thought), while he was cutting his grass.

Congratulations to Wilmont Hill on the occasion of his birthday, May 24.

The Men's Slo-Pitch League opens this Sunday (May 29) at 5:30 p.m.

The Uxbridge Black Hawks Oldtimers held their annual banquet, May 21. John Lajoie, the team's goaltender, won the "Peter More Memorial Trophy".

A baby shower was held at the home of Norma Benson in honor of her first great-grandchild, Carrie Benson, daughter of Bill and Kathy Benson of Beaverton. Attending were grandmothers Esther Benson and Helen Beverley, also a great aunt, Mrs. Hazel Carruthers of Pickering along with other relatives.

On Sat., May 28, beginning at 9 a.m., the First Claremont Cubs and Scouts are holding a Paper Drive. Areas covered will include Claremont, Greenwood, Brougham and Goodwood. Please leave your bundles by the road including magazines, newspapers, paper bags, flattened cardboard boxes and clean paper.

Due to a mix-up in the scheduling of the parks, the date of the Claremont United Church Outdoor Service and Picnic was incorrect. It's this Sunday (May 29) at 11 a.m. at Centennial Park, Brock Road, Pickering. The rain date is Sunday, June 5 in the Claremont Park.

Aggie Ferguson and her sister, Nancy

Enright of Toronto, travelled to Wheeling, West Virginia, on the Victoria Day weekend.

Congratulations to Janine Ferguson on winning a gold medal and to her sister Shelley on winning a silver medal in the javelin throw at the CLOSSA Meet in Peterborough. Janine and Shelley represented Uxbridge Secondary School in the Junior Division of the event.

Our community was shocked and saddened to hear of the tragic accident to eight-year-old Jeff Card. Jeff remains a patient in Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. He was transported there by air ambulance. Jeff is a Grade 3 pupil at Claremont Public School. His teachers and fellow students, neighbors and friends send get-well wishes.

Congratulations are extended to Lloyd MacGregor and Albert Samarillo on the occasion of birthdays, May 23.
