

Lovely homes on tour

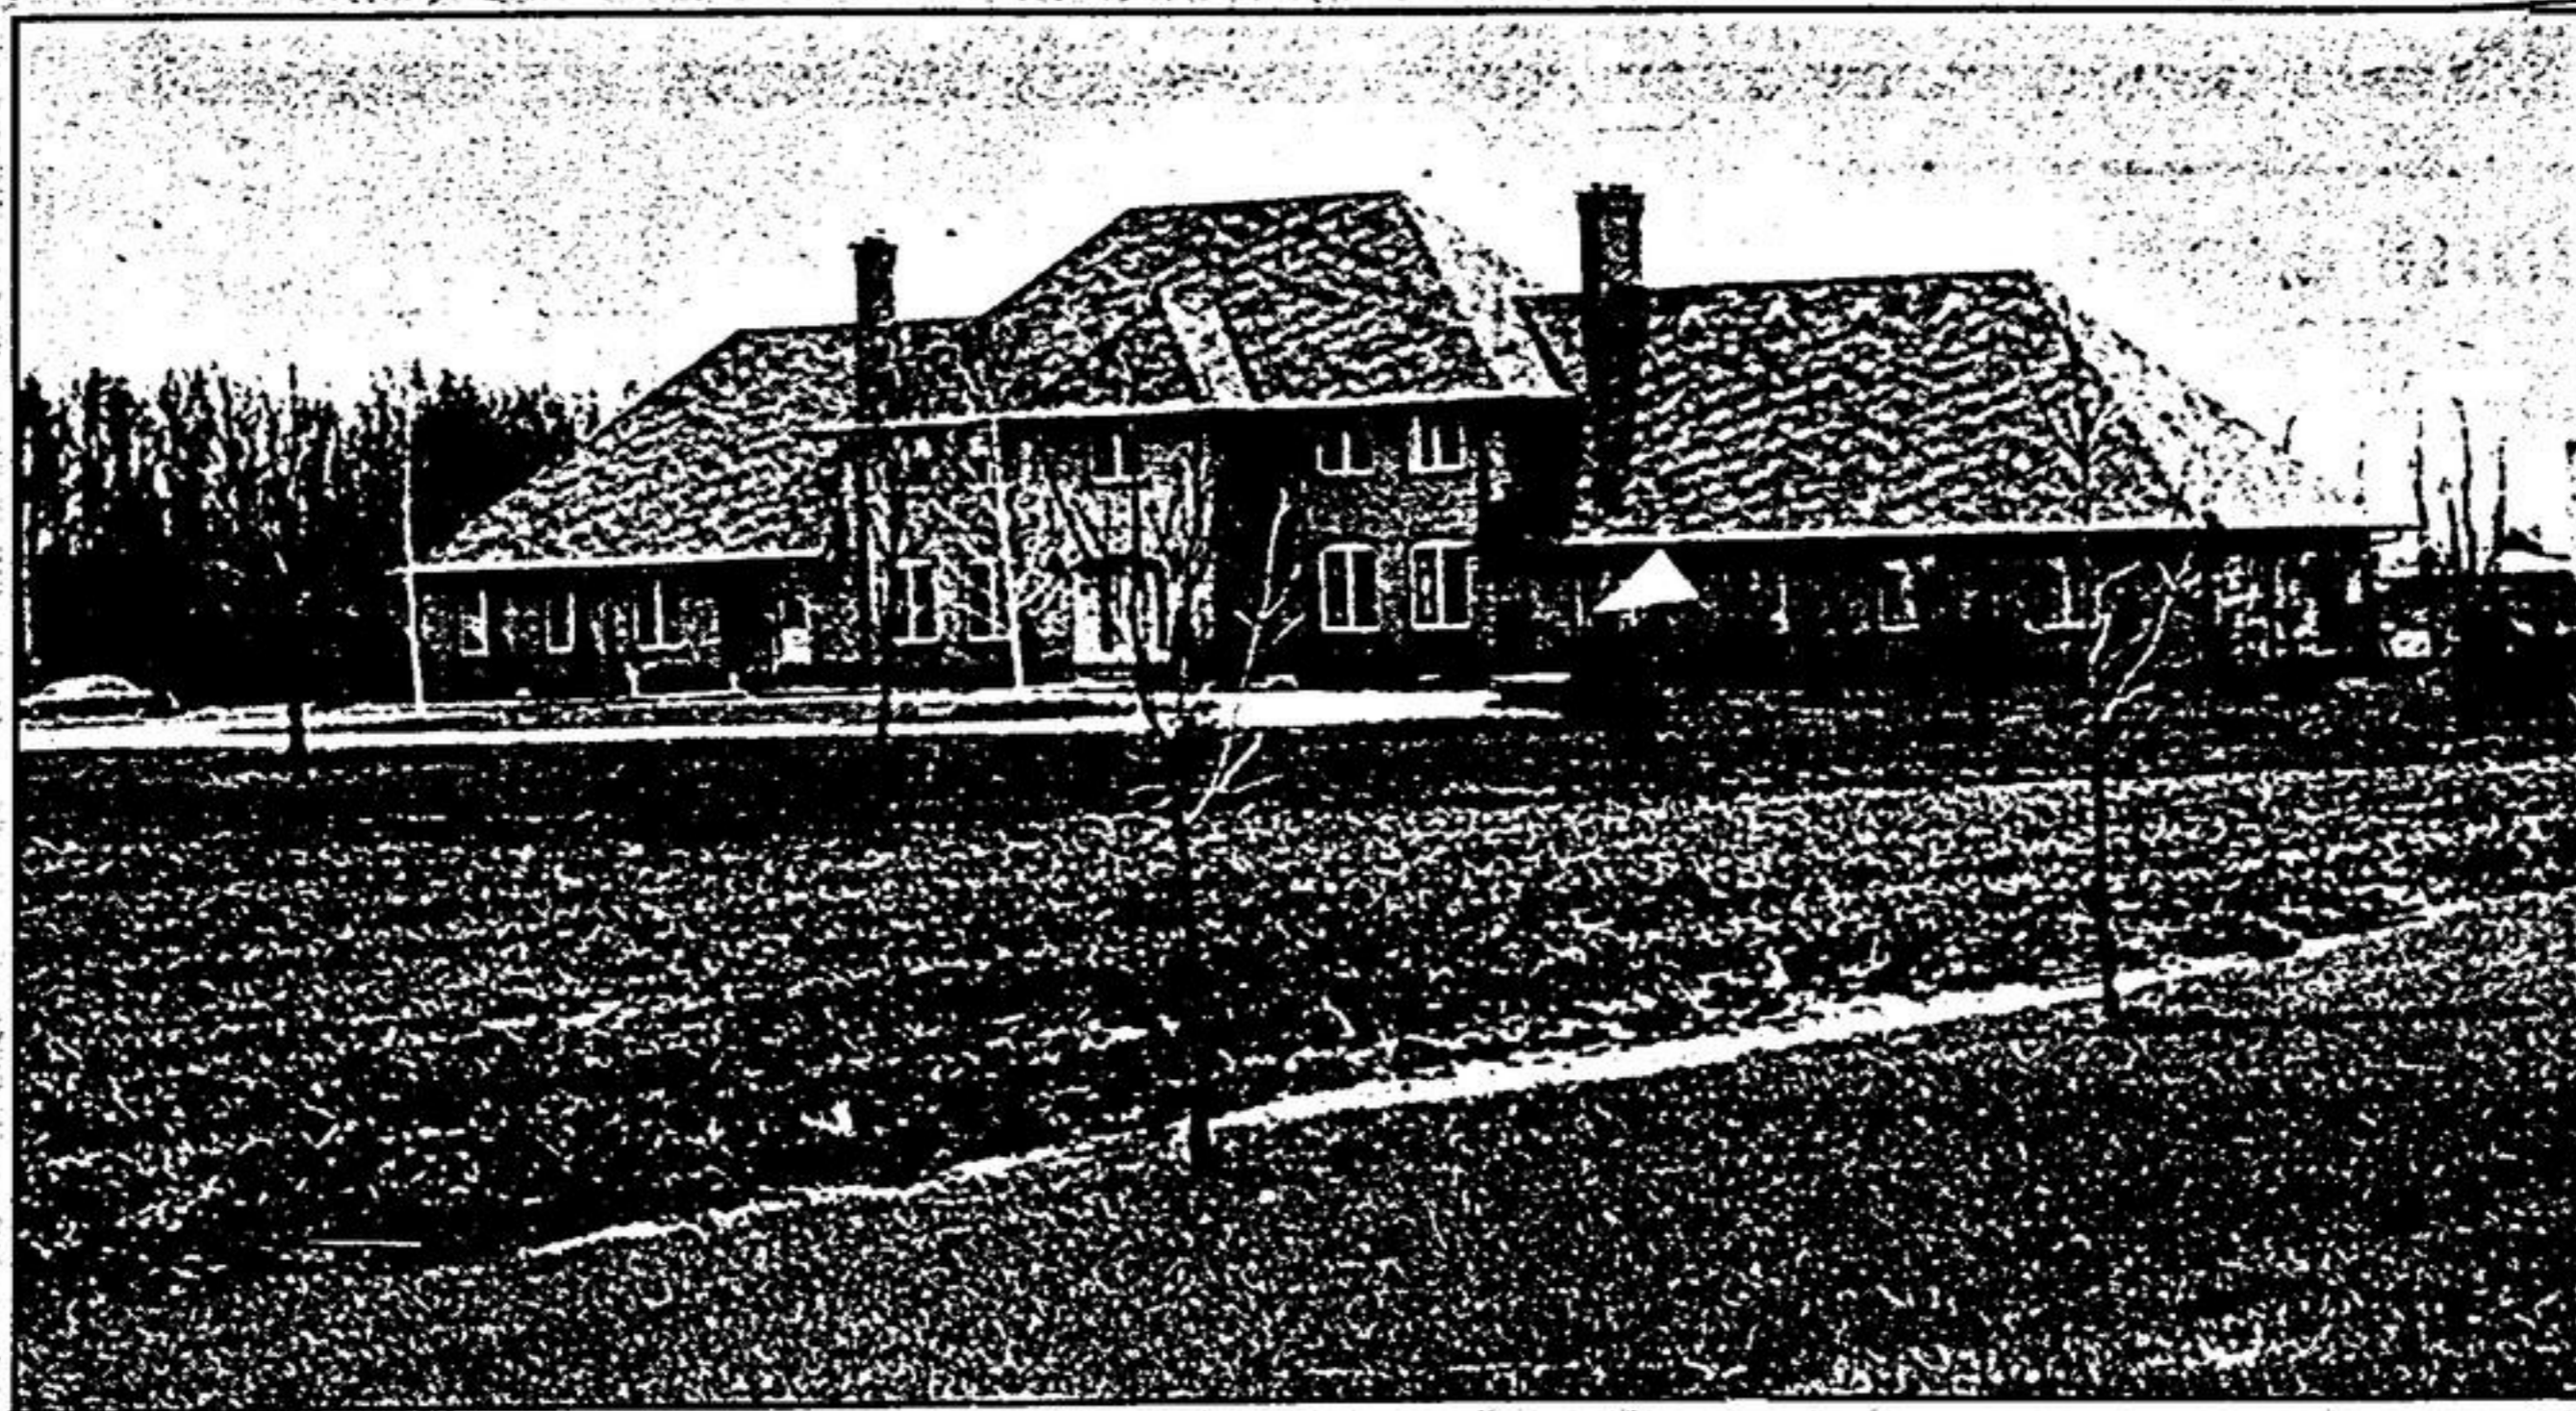

MARKHAM—The Women's Committee of Markham is sponsoring a "Country Tour of Homes" with proceeds going to the Markham Stouffville Hospital Fund.

The event is planned for Thurs., June 9 with locations all in the Markham-Stouffville area. Tickets ($10) are available at Aiken's Pharmacy, Main Street, Stouffville or at any of the homes along the tour. A map of the route will be provided.

Visitation points follow: The Anderson House, 35 East Drive, Unionville; The Rosenthal House, 4 Cachet Parkway, Unionville; The Nicholson House, 18th Avenue, R.R. 1, Unionville; The Hume House, 18th Avenue, R.R. 1, Unionville; The Todd House, R.R. 4, Stouffville and the Alan Tasker House, 8971 Woodbine Avenue, R.R. 2, Gormley.

The homes range in age from 1843 to 1982 and cover a variety of styles, architecture and interior design. The tour (for adults only) begins at 1 p.m. and concludes at five.

The Women's Committee of Markham was formed in 1968 to assist financially in the founding of the Markham Family Life Centre. Since that time, members have raised in excess of $30,000, all of which has been donated to the following: Markham Family Life Centre; Markham Information Pleas; Markham Clothing Centre; Yellow Brick House, Aurora; Markham Historical Society; Home Support Services; Bestview Residence Council; The Markham Museum; The Markham Community Pool; Operation Catch-Up; The Markham Library; Meals on Wheels; York Region Big Sisters and the York Region Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

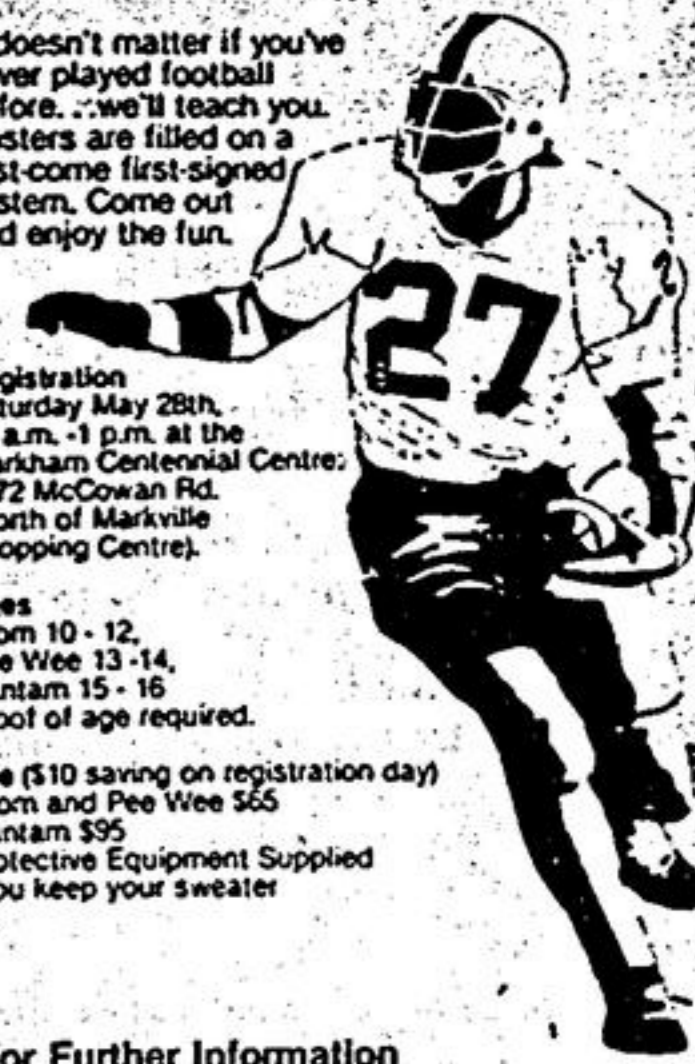

This beautiful country residence, the home of Mr and Mrs Leslie Todd and family, R.R. 4, Stouffville, is one of six visitation points on the Markham "Tour of Homes", June 9. Construction here was started in 1978 with "moving day" from just next door, two years later. Mr Todd, a well-known area builder, designed and built the house with the help of his wife and all members of the family. With the aid of interior designer, Grace Davis Paige, they have created an elegant residence filled with soft colors and fine traditional furniture. On the lower level is a spectacular indoor pool with sweeping views of the countryside.
