

Great Canadian Magic Festival

STOUFFVILLE — "See Canada Day In A Magical Way." Canada Day, in this case, will be July 2, the third day of "The Great Canadian Magic Festival," in which the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville celebrates the country's birthday; this time, through various feats of legerdemain. The Festival runs from June 30 to May 3.

"We got the feeling from council that it didn't really matter what the name was, so we dwelt on The Canada Magic Festival," said town businessman, Ged Stonehouse, who, along with George Schlukbier, Stouffville Library, appeared before a meeting of council, last week.

Stonehouse presented council with a copy of the Festival budget — $16,500 — with a request for $4,330 from the town.

"It's shaping up to be a super week," he said.

Councillor Jim Sanders moved that council support the request.

"I think the Magic Festival has a great potential," he said.

When the motion to support was carried, former Councillor, and Festival chairman, Bill Kamps, who was also in attendance, told council: "Needless to say, all of you are back in the parade."

The implication was that they had all been dropped, following their lack of enthusiasm for Kamps' original idea for a Flea Festival.
