Anyone for tennis?

Openings at club

By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT — If you are interested in taking tennis lessons, there are still a few openings left. The cost is $20 for 10 one-hour lessons, beginning Tuesday, June 7. Contact Shelagh Mulvenay at 649-3102.
 The Wednesday night Tennis Round Robin begins June 1 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone is welcome to join. The cost is $1.
 Congratulations to Norm McKenzie on his 19th birthday, celebrated this past week.

Despite inclement weather, many adults and children attended the service and picnic at Centennial Park, Pickering. After the worship, the boys and girls enjoyed pony rides, provided by Lee and Susan Jenkins; a pot-luck picnic; races and games. There was even an occasional water-filled balloon thrown near unsuspecting spectators. It is hoped the committee, headed by Karen Marks, will make plans for a similar picnic next year.

Jim and Beth Scales, and Mrs. Emily Gilmartin of Liverpool, Pennsylvania, spent the week-end with Karen and John Marks, Emily and Jackie. Karen's parents and grandmother also attended the United Church picnic.

Congratulations to Kirstie McNish, who celebrated her 16th birthday this week. Don't forget the Fun Day to be held at Claremont Public School, Tuesday, June 14.

On the week-end, an Open Euchre Tournament was held at Uxbridge Legion

Branch, No. 170. Lillian McGregor and Joyce Norrish placed second, with Kathy McBeth and Linda Vernon taking fourth place.

Friday evening at Claremont Park, at 7:30 p.m., there will be a "friendly grudge match" with the Port Perry girls (a number who are former Claremont residents) being guests of a Claremont Ladies' Slo-Pitch team. Come down and cheer on our local club.

Thursday, May 26, was the opening of the Ladies' Slo-Pitch league. County Jambooree defeated Hicks Sporting Goods in a close contest, 11-10.
