Two of the best

Mark Bowman, 13, (left) and Scott Couperthwaite, 14, students of Orchard Park School, Stouffville, were selected to play in a 70-piece York Regional band at a concert, June 8 in Aurora's Dr. G.W. Williams Secondary School. They auditioned back in April. A mixed choir from Orchard Park also participated in ---Jim Thomas the program.

Student farmers

One hundred more young people from Ontario's urban centres will have a chance to experience farm life this summer.

Through the Junior Agriculturalist Program, close to 290 youths will be work-ing on farms, distributed across the pro-vince. They will experience farmers' valuable knowledge and learn about animal husbandry, machinery handling and general farm labour.

Because of the expansion of the program's capacity, the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food can offer more opportunities to commercial farmers.

Students will arrive for a 9-week period, beginning June 20. Funded by the Ontario Youth Secretariat and administered by the Rural Organizations and Services Branch of the ministry, the Junior Agriculturalists receive a training allowance of $16 a day. The farmer provides one half of the allowance plus room and board.

If you are a full-time, commercial farmer and can host a keen, urban youth, this program may be right for you. Contact Barbara Kell, Junior Agriculturalist Coor-dinator, at 416-895-4519 (Zenith 59650 for York Region only). Apply now, positions are limited!
