Limited water

STOUFFVILLE town residents deserve something better—but then The Whitechurch-Stouffville Town Council recently agreed to send a written reply to a Stouffville resident who wrote and complained to Council about the town's water supply being restricted during certain calendar days.
 The letter stated: "Would it be too much to ask that Council give consideration to upgrading and holding capacity of the water supply."
 He explained that when a community has a limited water supply there must be rationing because some people take advantage of it so it needs to be regulated. and 100,000 gallons of water disappears quickly with 6,000 people."
 Mayor King said the town water supply will be staying the same so people will just have to cope with the present situation.
 "There should be ample water," he said. "You just can't leave the tap on or else things will go dry."

Staff gratitude

Dear Mr Thomas:
 The staff and residents of the Yellow Brick House want to express our sincere thanks for your consistent support through the regular delivery of The Tribune to our hostel.
 Housing continues to be a major concern and since we depend so much on keeping track of potential rentals, we do appreciate the outreach The Tribune provides. Countless referrals have been made as a direct result of information from your classified section.
 Thanks for your visibility and for the community warmth brought into our house through your efforts.
 Sincerely,
 Karen S. McLennan,
 Staff Person,
 Yellow Brick House,

THE ADVANTAGES OF OUR ADJUSTABLE RATE MORTGAGE... EVEN WITH INTEREST RATES LOW AGAIN

11%
 2 OR 3-YEAR TERM
 ADJUSTABLE RATE

If you are looking for a mortgage, Royal Trust's Adjustable Rate Mortgage could offer several advantages over a fixed-rate mortgage.

The interest rate, based on bank prime rates, will fluctuate over the term, but the monthly payments, in most circumstances, would remain constant.

If rates continue to go down, the overpayment will reduce the principal. If rates begin to rise, you have three choices.

You could maintain the monthly payment level and have the shortfall in interest added to the principal.

You can choose to pay the shortfall in interest and maintain the principal of your Adjustable Rate Mortgage at its present level.

Or you could pay off your entire Adjustable Rate Mortgage on any payment date, without penalty, and apply for a fixed rate mortgage. Appraisal and legal fees would apply to the new mortgage.

If you are looking for a mortgage, have 30% equity in your home and meet other mortgage requirements, you may qualify for our Adjustable Rate Mortgage. For full details, contact our Mortgage Loans Officer.
