

Goodwood News

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD — Last Monday evening, the Goodwood Institute met in Goodwood Hall with a good attendance. Elsie Boland had the answer to the motto — stressing on people using their talents instead of saying they can't do it. One never knows what he can do until he tries. Kathleen May had the program. The roll call was something made in Canada and there were several displays.

U.C.W. met at Marilyn Stewart's for a picnic, potluck lunch and enjoyed the outdoors and program. Mrs. Winn had an excellent contest and Judy Todd had the devotion. Saturday was clean up day at the United Church and many changes were made. To find out, you will have to come out and see what a beautiful church we have. A lot of energy and hard work was put into it. Thanks to all who helped. A special thanks to the presentation by the Mitchells for the lovely new doors. Wednesday evening a large crowd attended the benefit euchre at Goodwood Hall for the Minor Ball by the Goodwood Seniors. A cheque for $141 was handed over for the evenings fun. There were many winners in euchre and door prizes. Next euchre is Wednesday, July 20. Many thanks to Mrs. Luttrell who found a purse and returned it to its rightful owner, refusing a reward.
