Staff teacher

Gail Shotlander, great-granddaughter of Mrs Rose Crowder; granddaughter of Mrs Edna Davis and the late Roy Davis and daughter of Paul and Barbara Shotlander, received her Bachelor of Education degree, June 11, from the University of Western Ontario. In 1982, she received her B.A. degree from Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo. Gail has accepted a position on the staff of Orangeville Dist. Secondary School teaching Computer and Business Studies.

FROM HOLLAND

Mr and Mrs Leo Egberts, Mill Street, Stouffville, are pleased to have his brother and sister-in-law visiting with them for three weeks. Anton and Toos Egberts live in Gaanderen, Holland.

HOLD STEER ROAST

The Ballantrae and District Lions Club is holding its annual Steer Roast, Sat., Aug. 13 at the Community Centre. Admission to the dinner is $6.00 adults; $4.00 children. Afternoon activities (free of charge) will include pony rides and hay rides. Music for the occasion will be provided by Rod Bond and his Band.

BUS TRIP FOR SENIORS

The Silver Jubilee Club is sponsoring another bus trip, this one to include stop-offs at Yorkdale Plaza, the C.N. Tower, and Guildwood Inn for dinner and a tour of the grounds. The date is Thurs., Aug. 25 with departure time 1:30 p.m. Forty-two tickets will be sold at the Club on Wednesday afternoons on a first-come-first-served basis. The price is $25 per person.

COMPUTER INSTRUCTION

It's still not too late to register for the August computer courses at the Town Library. Classes for young people will be held during the day with adult instruction in the evening. For additional information contact the Library at 640-2395.

WELCOMED TO TOWN

While many are away on holidays, Diane Darling, Whitchurch-Stouffville's Welcome Wagon hostess is busy calling on newcomers to town including—Mr and Mrs Linas Tate, Winlane Drive, Stouffville, (from Weston); Mr and Mrs Frank Rhodes and son, 48 Tenth Line South, Stouffville, (from Scarborough); Mr and Mrs Richard Melless and family, 250 Main Street West, Stouffville, (from Ajax); Mr and Mrs Bill Kaiser, R.R. 2, Stouffville, (from Toronto); Mr and Mrs Rod Piper and son, 170 Manitoba Street, Stouffville, (from Markham); and Mr and Mrs Clayton Cormier, 397 Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, (from Toronto).

Around Town

"FACTS OF FAITH"

A sermon from science film entitled "Facts of Faith", will be shown at McCormack Memorial Church, Vivian, Sunday, Aug. 7 at 7:30 p.m. McCormack Memorial Church is located on the west side of Hwy. 48, south of the Vivian Road.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Courtenay Clutterbuck, editor of Parkview News, always includes a few "gems" on a page entitled "In Lighter Vein". One of these reads: "How close did it come to hitting you?" asked the farmer as he ran up to the tree where his hired-hand had taken shelter during an electrical storm. "Well," stammered the man, "I don't know, but my pipe wasn't lit before".

LONG-DISTANCE TRAVELLERS

Several residents of Stouffville's Parkview Apartments enjoyed long-distance trips recently including Melba Steckley, two weeks in California with her sister and Nancy Shank and Beulah Jones, to Victoria, British Columbia.

TRIP TO EUROPE

Ruth Grove, accompanied by her sister Frances, recently enjoyed an 18-day vacation in Europe.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Albert and Edna Brown, formerly of Stouffville, on their 50th wedding anniversary this month. To mark the occasion, an "open house" will be enjoyed at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Doug and Donna Appleton, R.R. 2, Oakwood from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

BAND WELCOMES MEMBERS

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Band is looking for new members. The first rehearsal in preparation for their fall program is Monday, Aug. 15 in the Stouffville Arena beginning at 7:30 p.m.

CHAMBER GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce is holding its annual Golf Tournament, Mon., Aug. 8 with tee-off time, 1 p.m. The location is the John Evelyn Course, Tenth Line South with a buffet dinner to follow at Sleepy Hollow. For reservations call either 640-2632 or 640-5993.

HOLD FOOT CLINIC

WARRIORS' DAY PARADE

The Warriors' Day Parade at the C.N.E. this year is Sat., Aug. 20 beginning at 10:30 a.m. A luncheon will follow. Veterans wishing free admission tickets to the "Ex" on this day must write and enclose a self-addressed envelope to: Ticket Chairman, Warriors' Day Council, P.O. Box 882, Station "K" Toronto (M4P 2E0).

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP CONFERENCE

Niagara Christian College campus in Fort Erie is the site of a Christian Fellowship Conference from Aug. 6 through Aug. 13. For additional information and brochures write Christian Fellowship Centre, 181 Lake Street, St. Catharines (L2R 5Y0).

ST. PATRICK'S PICNIC

Frequent showers and wet grounds failed to dampen the spirits of members from St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Markham, Sunday. They held their annual picnic in the Stouffville Park, with a large attendance of both adults and children.

RETURN FROM JAMAICA

Charlie and Becky Mashinter, Ginny Eby and Sandy Stover, all of Stouffville, have returned home from a working holiday in Jamaica.

WEDDING THIS SATURDAY

Congratulations to Heather Glenn and Jennis Neilson on their marriage this Saturday at 11 a.m., in the Stouffville Missionary Church.

LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS

Stouffville's unique Care and Share Shoppe on Main Street, requires volunteer clerks for the summer and fall periods. Anyone will to assist in this service is asked to call Ruth Moyer at 640-1410.

TO PURCHASE PROPERTY

The congregation of the Stouffville Missionary Church refuses to stand still. The Board of Management has been granted approval to purchase the Pilkey property on Baker Avenue with a view to future expansion.

FEELING BETTER

Judi France, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, the Supervisor of Social Services at Parkview Home, is feeling much better following recent surgery. The Parkview staff and residents are looking forward to her return.

IMMACULATE PROPERTY

The beautiful country home of Mr and Mrs Jack Spang, east of Stouffville, is for sale. The site, immaculately maintained, includes just under nine acres. John Baird Real Estate of Markham has the listing.

BASKETS REPLACED

Several of the hanging baskets on Stouffville's Main Street were replaced last week by the staff of Craven Acres, this year's beautification program. The baskets and planters have been the subject of many compliments this summer, both from local residents and visitors.

FROM ALBERTA

Frank and Darlene Reid of Swan Hills, Alberta, are spending a couple of weeks in the area on their way back from a trip to the East Coast. They have been visiting with Frank's mother, Mrs. Laura Reid of Almira and with his brother-in-law and sister, Gord and Marion Housser, Ninth Line South, Stouffville. Other recent visitors from the West have been Mrs. Reid's daughter and son-in-law, Donna and Bill Besent and son Mathew from Winnipeg. They were accompanied by Bill's mother, the first time she'd visited Ontario. They left for home on Friday.

Late Alice Taun Aided all churches

STOUFFVILLE — The Stouffville church community lost a dedicated and faithful friend, July 26, in the sudden passing of Mrs. Bertram Taun at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. She was 79.

Mrs. Taun, the former Alice Wright, was born in Toronto, the daughter of Addison and Mary Wright. Following her marriage, she and her husband farmed on the Bloomington Road, between Warden and Woodbine Avenue more than 30 years. Mr. Taun died in November, 1960.

Following her husband's death, Mrs. Taun moved to Main Street, Stouffville, where she soon became associated with the congregation of Stouffville United Church, the U.C.W. and the Women's Institute. A particular denomination, however, proved no barrier. Mrs. Taun attended special services and events in all of Stouffville's churches, enjoying the inspiration and friendships that such associations engendered.

She also had a close attachment to the Stouffville Horticultural Society and while she seldom participated in shows, she loved flowers and plants.

Mrs. Taun was herself an accommodating person who made friends wherever she went. Rev. Cecil Tiller, her pastor, made mention of this at the service, Thursday, in the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville. Pall-bearers were—three grandsons, Bob Walls, Brian Walls and Murray Pattenden; and three sons-in-law, Richard Frisby, Bill Walls and Elwood Pattenden. Interment was at Heise Hill Cemetery.

Surviving are three daughters, Lois (Mrs. Richard Frisby), Victoria Square; Doris (Mrs. Wm. Walls), Bethesda; Audrey (Mrs. Elwood Pattenden) and one son, Glen, with whom Mrs. Taun lived. Also surviving is one brother, Tom; three half-brothers; one step-sister and eight grandchildren.
