

Fun in the sun at the old ball game

Photos by Jim Holt

NOW, WHICH ONE WILL WE GET? Team members wasted no time in looking over their loot, prior to the presentations at the end of the tourney.

Tammi Surman and Kim McConnell of the Smurthwaite Heating Bantam girls team 'wave the flag' after winning their final against Vandorf's Hans Motors.

Conlin Motors made the most of any errors by Christiansen Landscaping, coming from behind in the final to sock in four runs, one run short of tying the game. Christiansen won 12-11.

Goodwood convenor Jim Wakeford shares a joke with Mayor Eldred King. Jim accepted the winners trophy for the T-Ball Advanced Signage team.

Over enthusiastic infielders sometimes made it difficult for anyone to find the ball, but in T-ball almost anything is acceptable as long as the youngsters enjoy themselves.

Bertha Pattenden presenting the Pattenden Memorial Trophy to Vandorf's Ian Cruikshank. The trophy is presented annually to a Vandorf boy who shows outstanding sportsmanship throughout the season.

DURN IT! This young T-ball player had his share of problems in making a hit. However, he eventually sent the ball on its way for a single.

Pitcher Dan Roller of Neate Roller Bantam boys put in a fine performance against Wesley's Restaurant in the final. Unfortunately, even Dan's super pitching couldn't give the Rollers the tourney title. They went down 4-3 to Wesley.