Reader pleads ignorance to Bahai's faith

Dear Editor: In this day and age, it's hard to believe that 153 people could be slain for their faith.

If we're to believe what we read, such tragedies are occurring regularly in Iran.

Because Iran seems so far removed from Canada, most of us (myself included) merely close our eyes and pretend such atrocities never happen. However, when the matter's brought to our attention in our local newspaper and a memorial service is held in our local library, it brings the issue closer to home.

It's time we Canadians began concerning ourselves with such things. Our world no longer extends only from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island.

Sincerely,
Sheila Freeman,
Gormley, R.R. 1.
