

Home busy during summer

By J.M. Nighswander
The summer months are always busy months at Parkview Home with most of our 90 plus staff members alternating vacations during July and August.
Since we offer a seven-day-a-week, 24-hour-a-day service to our Residents, the work must go on and all shifts must be filled.
We are grateful to staff members who, in many cases, were willing to schedule their vacations to accommodate the work schedules and their fellow workers.
We are also grateful to quite a number of students who joined the staff during the summer months or, who were able to change to full-time employment from their previous part-time after-school assignments.

To all staff, we say a sincere "Thank You" for your dedicated, caring service.
We also wish to thank the many volunteers who assist in socio-recreational programs and with the daily essentials of living. Sometimes aging hands can no longer perform the "taken-for-granted" activities, like shaving or combing hair, for example. A caring volunteer is then very much appreciated by both the Resident and the busy staff.

Volunteers who provide entertainment and inspiration are also of great value to our Residents. Programs and services provided in this way include the following:
Rev. Andrew Brndjar with slides on Wales, July 7; Kent Wideman and Darla Gordon with trumpet and vocal music, July 21; Dave Kennedy, Dan Whitham, Mike and Collette Warriner with instrumental music, July 28; Music with Emmanuel International, Aug. 4; Music with Greg Benoit, Aug. 11; Betty Newman with slides on Nepal, Aug. 18; Piano students of Blanche Ramer, Aug. 25.
Sunday evening services were provided by the following:

Cedar Grove Mennonite, July 10; Stouffville Missionary, July 17; Baker Hill Baptist, July 24; Markham Missionary, July 31; Stouffville Baptist, Aug. 7; Stouffville Memorial Christian, Aug. 14; Frank Barkey with the Christian Business Men's Association of Agincourt, Aug. 21 and Steeles Avenue Mennonite, Aug. 28.

Our Residents have been busy making strawberry and raspberry jam in preparation for our fall bazaar, Oct. 25 beginning at 1:30 p.m. An invitation is extended to all Tribune readers to attend.
