

Heritage Hills — Estate sites

Heaven on earth

Far removed from the noise and pollution of big-city living, is a 32-lot residential development called Heritage Hills Estates. The property, beautifully contoured for utmost privacy, is located on the 6th Concession of Uxbridge Township, midway between Highways 1A and 47. Several homes are already under construction here with nine of the lots now sold. The firm handling the sales is Norman Hill and Associates Limited, 222 Sheppard Avenue East, Willowdale. One of the agents is Wayne Wilson. While residences can be built to owners' specifications on two and three-acre lots, one four-bedroom pine log house has been completed and is available for purchase. The asking price is $289,000. This magnificent home, erected by Larry Park Log Construction of R.R. 1, Campbellcroft, Ont., is quality insulated to offer maximum warmth in the winter and coolness in the summer. It is electrically heated. Persons interested in additional information on this residence or any of the still-vacant sites at Heritage Hills, may call 226-5515 or 225-1016.

Tucked away in the quiet of Uxbridge Township countryside is Heritage Hills Estates, Conc. 6, between Hwys. 1A and 47. The site includes more than 30 lots, nine of which are sold. One attractive home available for sale is this four-bedroom log residence, priced at $289,000. It was built by a firm known as Larry Parker Log Construction of R.R. 1, Campbellcroft, Ontario. The logs are cut from pine. —Jim Thomas.
