Accessories are vital for a total look

No matter how smashing that new dress or separates outfit may be, it takes the right accessories to get the effect you want to achieve. Here are some of the ways designers say you can accessorize that fall '83 fashion:

- An exotic-looking bag featuring touches of reptile skin can add pizzazz to that basic wool suit.
- Go back to nature with necklaces that boast coconut wood, copper eucalyptus leaves, natural horn and rough coral, to set off fall's turtle-neck tops.
- Sash that sweater dress with an elephant-like belt for added drama.
- Accessorize those pushed-up sleeves with spiral cuffs that go on and on and on.
- Give that business suit your own special touch with an elegant gold lapel pin.
- The easy, elongated look of a sweater dress calls for the latest necklaces that go to great lengths in gold, sparkled with fake jewels.
- Big, bulky tops need accessories to match, such as the new, oversized silver bracelets.
- Pull on elbow-length gloves to emphasize the décolletage of this season's evening dresses.
- Highlight the fall color of your new jumpsuit with big, burnished copper earrings.
