By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT — The four corners of Claremont have taken on a bright new look with the renovations of the Ward building on the northwest corner. Gillespie Real Estate Services Inc. have opened a new Real Estate office. Peter Gillespie, the principal of the firm, has been active in the real estate business in the Claremont area for the past four years. Recently, Peter was manager of the A.E. LePage real estate office in Whitby. Peter feels that the hamlet of Claremont will be experiencing a substantial residential expansion with a possible increase of 122 residential dwellings that have been approved by the Town of Pickering within the Development Plan for the Hamlet of Claremont. Gillespie Real Estate Services Inc. will be active in the north Pickering, south Uxbridge, and north Whitby areas. The office will be open on Thursday, September 15 from 12 to 2 p.m. for coffee and donuts so drop in. It's great to see another new business in town! Little Nadine Martin who will be one-year-old on September 28 and is the daughter of Leni and Paul Martin took first place in the Baby Contest at the Port Perry Fair on the weekend. Leni and Paul now reside on Scugog Island since moving from Claremont. Her grandparents are Frank and Sylvia Martin of Claremont and Earle and Shirley Pilkey of Ajax. Byron Tuck is at home now after his stay in hospital, but is still experiencing some problems after losing part of three toes in his accident at his work. We wish him a speedy recovery. The Mens Sunday night Slo-Pitch League held their annual tournament for the seasons champions. The day was sunny and very hot with lots of great ball games and some surprising upsets. Starting at 9 a.m. Fisher easily defeated Lions 19-5.

through winning 12-11 against Vale. Thus the two finals were played. In a close contest that went an 'extra' inning, Lakes Corner Store defeated the Lions 10-9 with Jack Redshaw hitting a home run to end the game. The Championship game was exciting as Gauslin held off a last inning rush by Fisher to win 14-13. Bruce Rogers started the advance for Gauslin by hitting a home run his first time at bat. The Gauslin/Faulkner team dedicated their win to one of their players John Vanderlight and his son Dwayne who is very ill in Sick Childrens Hospital.

483 to the winning team. Paul Caruthers presented the 'Randy Caruthers Memorial Trophy' to the runners-up. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Peggy and John Vanderlight whose son Dwayne is in Sick Kids Hospital. Alvin and Fern Redshaw, Bob, Lilley, and Erma Rivers, Sherri and Troy all of Port Perry recently visited with Al and Carole Redshaw and then attended the Claremont Mens Fastball game.

Transitions: from summer into fall, from daytime at the office to after dark on the town - HL handles them beautifully. With cool, softly tailored dresses, blouses, skirts by Nipon... in solids, stripes or tiny prints... each punctuated by black. With Ports' sophisticated little black wool crepe suits. With Marissa Christian's light knits... muted in wheat, or a glow in jewel tones.

Don't be fooled by the name. The Kitchen Door offers accessories for the dining room, too-like place mats and napkins in subtle colours and dainty prints. My favourites are by Rose Tree of Dallas and Suttles & Seawinds of Nova Scotia. Gorgeous! As are frosted glass-ware... and wooden salad bowls... and interesting serving dishes... and much more.

Let The House of Heirlooms light up your life. Lamps - those all-important accents - are everywhere. Little or big... brass or porcelain... Tiffany fixtures... hurricane and gone-with-the-wind lamps... all in romantic colonial designs. And here's a tip: they've hard to find

A shop that's surely unique... offering the very latest fashions together with timeless antiques. This intriguing combination has always attracted me, and never more so than right now, when it's overflowing with gorgeous fall clothes... just in, and shown to advantage against a background of mellow old wood. Go in for a dress, and you might well leave with a dresser, too!
