She's upset at vandals

Dear Editor:
Anger and frustration are feelings everyone in Goodwood undoubtedly expressed on hearing about (and reading about) the desecrating of tombstones in our cemetery.

How could anyone stoop so low? The fact beer bottles were found at the site may be an excuse in some folks' eyes, but not mine. This revelation only adds to the stupidity of this shameful act.

Sincerely,
Bernice Empringham,
Goodwood, R.R. 1.

Big blooms impress her

Dear Sir:
Upon visiting and driving through Stouffville this summer, I was so pleased to see the hanging baskets and sidewalk planters filled and blooming so beautifully. Even though this has been an extremely hot summer the plants appeared so fresh and well cared for. Those responsible for this project should be commended on their good work.

Thanks for keeping my 'old hometown' a place of which to be proud.

Sincerely,
Sheila Davis,
Port Colborne.

Reader backs paper's stand

Dear Mr Thomas:
Please accept our family's thanks, (I know I speak for others also), for your strong stand against alcohol consumption at "public" gatherings.

Is it any wonder hundreds and hundreds of innocent people are killed and injured every year because of this very thing?

On one hand, the Provincial Government approves its sale and on the other, they condemn the carnage. Politicians can't have it both ways. Where there is alcohol, there will be death. I think Whitechurch-Stouffville has had more than its share of alcohol-related fatalities.

What people do in their own homes, is THEIR business. What they do outside their homes, is MY business. Our family could be the next victims.

Please continue your crusade. The results may not be apparent but at least it will make folks think.

Sincerely,
Katherine Wideman,
R.R. 2, Stouffville.

'Alcohol is a concern'

Dear Mr Thomas:
Everywhere one goes these days, there's drinking--and I'm not referring to milk.

Most of us, it seems, turn a blind eye to it because it's become so common. However, this doesn't mean we're not concerned. We're VERY concerned, particularly when so many innocent lives are taken on our highways.

One would think individuals and organizations would take a lesson from this. But no, the almighty dollar is all-important. Nothing else matters.

When you criticized the sale of alcohol at the Museum barn-raising, I immediately sat down and wrote this letter. You may consider it as personal or for publication, it doesn't matter. I just want you to know you have my support.

Sincerely,
Judith (Judy) Hoover,
Markham.
