Sarah Woolford Impresses judges

PICKERING. — For ten-year-old Sarah Woolford of Salem Road, Pickering, riding "Blueberry Pie" is the ultimate in joy and recreation. They've been close friends 1 1/2 years. Pretty Sarah, a Grade 6 student at Branksome Hall, Toronto, accompanies her well-behaved horse on trail rides as well as competitions. She has dozens of ribbons and trophies as proof of her skill. Future goals are the C.N.E. and The Royal.

Sarah has been taking lessons for as long as she and "Blueberry Pie" have been together. Her instructor is Gaitan Morin. "It's what I enjoy doing most," says Sarah. Her horse is groomed to perfection, often prompting favorable comment from show judges and spectators alike. This is Sarah's responsibility also and she accepts the challenge with the same enthusiasm as she does competitions.

ELEVEN JOSEPH

11 Joseph Street

Whatever your budget, whatever your lifestyle, Eleven Joseph can't help but please you. Owner/Buyer Shirley A. Radbourne has painstakingly selected the best and brightest from 75 fashion lines. Affordable outfits, whose cut and attention to detail belie their modest price tags, hang cheek-by-jowl with Soo Yung Lee's elegant dresses or Paul Costello's superb suits in her delightfully eclectic shop.

HANBURY-LEIGH OF MARKHAM

HANBURY-LEIGH
48 Main Street

HL is full of surprises. Not just the beautifully tailored suits, dresses and separates you'd expect to find, but all the accessories that make your own statement. Felt hats by Kanzol, trousers, berets... belts, narrow, wide, even beaded... scarves of cashmere (only $25!) or silk... hosiery by Hanes... gloves of silky-soft leathers... Mary Richmond's clever beads, each one an original... and more!

The House of Heirlooms

THE HOUSE OF HEIRLOOMS

16 Main Street

Surprises galore await you at The House of Heirlooms. As well as their House of Brougham collection, you'll find Georgetown Brass — candlesticks, sconces and switchplates. Brass lavaboes and wooden bath accessories. Hand-dipped candles just waiting to glow in an 1867 chandelier of wrought iron and pine. And all arranged in a cosy, homelike setting.

THE KITCHEN DOOR and bath encore

THE KITCHEN DOOR & BATH ENCORE
85 Main Street

One of the great things about shopping here is the warm welcome you always receive from Betty and her helpful staff. Browse all you like, chat, sip coffee, sign up for a cooking class — and sometimes even sample the delicious fruits thereof. But I defy you to leave empty-handed — everything is irresistible.

A PETTING ZOO

This Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Visit The Petting Zoo
Sept. 29th, 30th and Oct. 1st.

Chicken and a donkey,
Monkey too,
A lamb and a zebra,
At the Petting Zoo.

Maybe a pig,
Or a calf or deer,
And birds of a feather,
Should all be here.

So don't miss the fun,
Bring a friend or two,
And see all the animals,
At the Petting Zoo.

September is... a new beginning
