'Girl Next Door' Enjoys travel

By Jim Thomas
STOUFFVILLE — Woodworking and auto mechanics are no longer high school courses that attract only boys. Not at S.D.S.S. anyway. Sixteen-year-old Jennifer Sayers, Elm Road, Stouffville, is a participant in both—and enjoys them both.

"I felt a little weird the first day," she recalls, explaining that boys still outnumber girls about seven-to-one. However, despite the imbalance, she no longer feels uncomfortable in class. Jennifer's our "Girl Next Door".

Born in Toronto, Jennifer's one of two in the family of John and Mary Sayers.

A younger sister, Norma, is a student at Orchard Park. Jennifer hopes to train as an airline stewardess following graduation from Stouffville High. Love of travel is a main reason behind her decision.

A year ago, she and her father visited Ireland, a trip she'll never forget. She hopes to return and his saving her money to help cover the cost.

Jennifer was a member of the Precision Group in the Stouffville Figure Skating Club last season. She holds her Leaders' Badge in swimming. This past summer she served as a lifeguard and counsellor at Glenbrook Day Camp, R.R. 2, Markham.
