

Local women hold country sale

By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT — The Claremont Country Cupboard will be held on Saturday, Oct. 29 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Claremont United Church. There will be homemade baking; a Christmas table; fish pond; handicrafts; stuffed toys; quilts; and face painting. Afternoon tea costs $1.25. Please support the United Church Women.
 On Thursday, Oct. 13 the sessions of Claremont-Brougham Pastoral Charge will meet at Claremont United Church at 8 p.m.
 Birthday wishes go out to Clarissa Wood who celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday. To celebrate this occasion, the Reid grandchildren presented a pair of candlestick holders to the United Church.
 The Claremont Womens Institute will meet at the home of Doris Norton on Wednesday, Oct. 19 at 1:30 p.m. At that time the special guest will be Eileen Shier who will report on the Triennial Convention at Vancouver.
 On Saturday, Oct. 22 at 8 p.m. the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 483 are sponsoring a Halloween dance. Prizes will be awarded to the winning costumes. The music will be provided by the Diamond Reo Band with local player Steve Crossgrove on steel guitar. Also on the October 22 there will be a legion sponsored Pool and Euchre Tournament for Claremont Legion members only and their spouse, girlfriend, or boyfriend. It starts at 12 noon and costs $1 per person. Every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. is darts and subs are needed. Contact Liz Redshaw at 649-2437. Euchre is every Thursday evening at 8:15 p.m. with the women against the men. Thanks to Lenora McKenzie, the sports convenor for the branch, who sent out a very informative newsletter. If you have any questions or ideas contact Lenora.

 The Claremont Public School Advisory Committee meeting will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the school library. Anyone is welcome to attend.
 The Block Parent program is now in effect. Please notify the appropriate parent if your child will be absent from school. They are as follows:
 Morning

Monday — Cathy Walker at 640-6602.
 Tuesday — Marilyn Ridley at 649-2072.
 Wednesday — Wendy Kobold at 649-5130.
 Thursday — Linda McCance at 649-2056.
 Friday — Elizabeth Ritchie at 640-4653.
 Monday to Friday afternoon
 Elva Reid at 640-2173.
 If you have any used Wintario tickets you can help Claremont Public School by sending them in with any student. A dramatic production is being brought to the school and they are entitled to use the Wintario tickets to assist in covering the costs with a maximum of $50. The Grade 7 class will soon be studying a language unit entitled "Strange Places". This will involve unusual homes (foreign and domestic) and many aspects of the construction industry. Anyone who has materials or expertise in this area and is willing to assist please contact the Grade 7 teacher Don Andrews at 649-2000.
 Sympathy is extended to Judy DeTombe in the passing of her husband, Fred C. DeTombe. Sympathy is also extended to his mother-in-law and father-in-law, Lillian and Mac Allbright. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, Oct. 5 with interment at Goodwood Cemetery. Sympathy is extended to the family of Bert Van Stiphout who passed away on October 3. Before moving to Pickering, Mr. Van Stiphout operated Stiphouts TV on the Main Street. Bill and Linda Dale and Billy from Liverpool, Pennsylvania arrived Friday to spend Thanksgiving with her sister and family, Karen and John Marks. While here they attended a surprise birthday party for Marion Peddie held in Pickering.

Marion and Stan Benson held Thanksgiving at their home with son Jim, who was home for the weekend from his studies at Guelph. Also attending were Ken and Mark Middleton of Erin; Joan and Cliff Madill and family of Stouffville; and Don, Grace, Lynn Marie, and Mac Middleton.
 Betty and John Devitt travelled to Windsor on the weekend to attend a wedding. Bob and Ann Jones, Lisa and David travelled to Brampton to spend Thanksgiving with Ann's parents on Monday.

Program starts

Over 1,700 young people will be employed across the Province's Winter Experience 83-84 Program, Bruce McCaffrey, Provincial Secretary for Social Development, announced today.
 "Our aim is to give young people with limited education and minimal experience up to 20 weeks of employment," Mr McCaffrey said. "Winter Experience also offers jobs for youth with physical or mental disabilities."

 Eligible young people may pick up an application at their local Ontario Youth Employment Counselling Centre or Canada Employment Centre.
