

Need a laugh

Dear Jim:
Your Roaming Around column of Oct. 5 gave us a chuckle. We have long followed your escapades—from your visit to a Toronto massage parlor to a sight-seeing trip in a King Township nudist club. I hope you find it more convenient to hide that new (and smaller) camera under your fig leaf! Despite the fact the Stouffville community is growing, "the personal" remains important. I hope this never changes. So keep "roaming around" Jim, and put a little fun into an otherwise weary world.
Sincerely,
Kathleen (Kay) Horton,
R.R. 2, Uxbridge

Parental guidelines

Dear Mr Thomas:
I found your Roaming Around column (Oct. 12) very interesting. I too was "caught" with a couple of unsavory home video films that were unsuitable for viewing, regardless of one's age. However, this didn't discourage me from obtaining others. I simply learned from my mistake and became more selective. By taking a little time and reading the descriptions on the cartons, one can tell for the most part, the types of movies they are.

Unfortunately, the language used by the actors (and actresses) cannot be discovered by the content on the cover. This can be a real shocker.
I believe there should be some kind of warning for parents in this regard. It would save Moms and Dads a lot of hassles and embarrassments.

Sincerely,
Nancy Fitzsimmons,
R.R. 2, Stouffville.

Don't waffle on site

Dear Mr Thomas:
With regard to the planned Recreation Complex for our Town, I wish to add my vote in favor of the site opposite the High School. I consider it the best location in the area and feel we're fortunate to have such a place to accommodate the Centre.
Personally, since the proposal was introduced, I never considered it going anywhere else.

While politicians must listen to the people and consider their suggestions, I would suggest they not "blow with the wind" so to speak but stick by their guns. The choosing of the site is of utmost importance. What is to follow will fall into place in due time.
My thanks for allowing me to express an opinion on this very important matter.

Sincerely,
Gordon Meyers,
Main Street,
Stouffville.
