

Rec. Centre Fund close to $60,000

The Stouffville Lions Club pledged $6,500 with the hope of more to come. Al Edwards (right) of the Fund-Raising Co-ordination Committee, accepted

Defends funding

Dear Editor:
I write to respond to the letter from Arlene Prentice under the heading "No Strings", that appeared in the Nov. 2 issue of The Tribune. I feel as chairman of the "Life At Its Best" weekend, some clarification is needed.
First, I do not believe we need apologize for denominationalism. Each of us approaches God in his (her) own way. Some emphasize different aspects of the faith and different understandings of our faith. All of us, as Christians, seek our Lord Jesus as He Calls Us. While it is true that denominationalism can be very divisive and hurtful, a more enlightened view is that we have much to learn from each other. While personally, I prefer to work out my Christianity within the Anglican communion, I know I have much to learn from the Missionary Church, the Presbyterian Church, the Pentecostals, the Roman Catholics, the United Church and so on. The weekend we recently held, symbolized our love, concern and respect for each other.

is an Anglican. Bill Graham is a Baptist. Jesus was a Jew. And other examples could be cited. But surely, Marney did not present "Anglicanism". Billy Graham does not present "Baptists". They appeal to ALL people.
One of the reasons Marney was chosen was, in fact, his demonstrated cross-denominational appeal.
The second issue

Arlene raises is more critical. Where in holy scripture does it say "Charity begins at home?" I read "for God so loved the WORLD!" As Christians, we have a responsibility to be concerned for people in Whitechurch-Stouffville, in Ontario, in Canada and around the world. The marvelous response of this Town to our "Deacon Al Fund" has enabled us to bring him. So the money is not directed at "supporting little-known programs overseas", as Arlene suggests, but simply to provide opportunities for the gospel to be preached. I might add that, in reality, the Third World's needs far out-weigh our own problems.

Sincerely,
Philip Poole,
Chairman,
"Life At Its Best" Weekend.

Honor grads Friday night

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville Dist. Secondary School will hold its annual Commencement Exercises, Friday evening, (Nov. 11), at 8 p.m.
A reception will follow the ceremony.
Michael Muir, former principal at S.D.S.S., and now principal at Don Head Secondary School, Richmond Hill, will address the graduates.
Many students will be honored for academic excellence including Ontario Scholar Michael Ku. Michael's Grade 13 average was 97.8 per cent, second highest in York Region.
Commencement arrangements are in charge of staff teacher, John Marshall.
