Teachers and students reunited at Homecoming

It was a celebration for present as well as former students as close to 350 helium-filled balloons were released, Thursday. One of the happy participants was eight-year-old Janet Muse of Maystone Court, Stouffville, a pupil in Grade 4.

Arlene Yakeley, formerly of Stouffville and now living in Mississauga, was back in her old room and at her old desk, Saturday. Arlene is now an Air Traffic Controller at Toronto International Airport.

Celebrate a birthday

BY JIM THOMAS
 STOUFFVILLE — It was a "Homecoming" — a reunion of students and teachers spanning twenty-five years.

The location was Orchard Park Public School. The occasion was its Silver Anniversary.

Principal John Hinks and members of the Reunion Committee, headed by Moureen Terhune, were on hand to greet each guest warmly as they entered the enlarged facility.

Returning teachers included—Lynda McLean, Lois Flett, Cecile Carpentier, Marg Murphy, Bruce Mickleburgh, Ed McDonald, Nancy Cumming, Jan Percy, Eva Wolf, Beverley Bratton, Nellie Atkinson, Judy Sutherland, Gary Grundy, Dave Payne and former principal, Keith Sutherland.

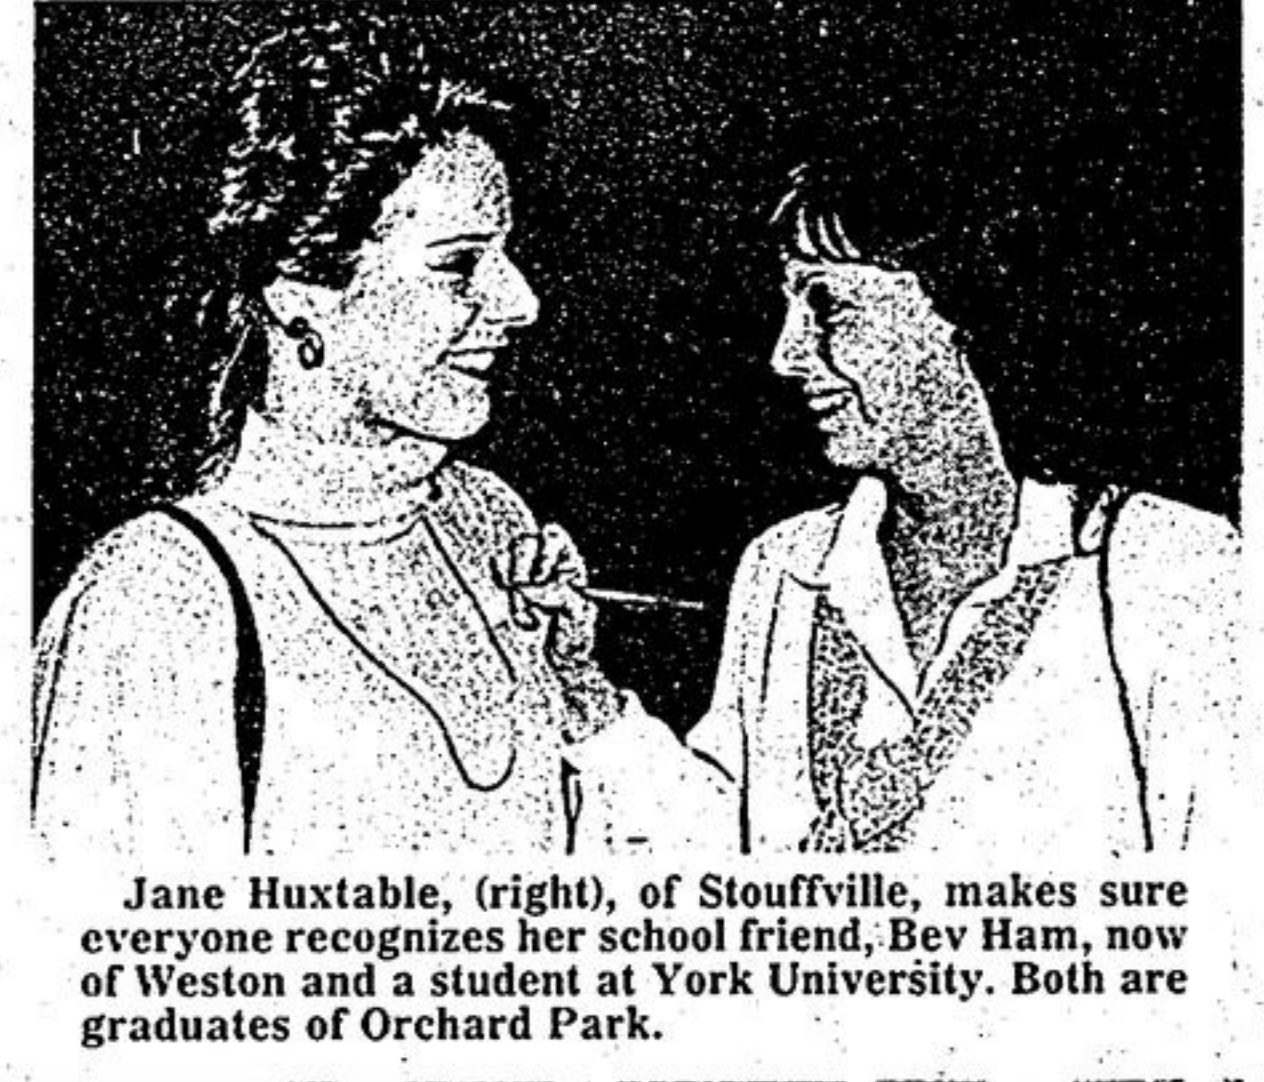

Students from a distance included—Russ Stover, Kincardine; Randy Zwiwer, Owen Sound; Jaqueline (Mumford) Field, Whitby; Kim (Joice) Francis, Cobourg; Darlene (Lehman) Holyoake, Peterborough and Arlene Yakeley, Mississauga.

Three of the original trustees were present—Cec Hendricks, Lorna Button, Ethel Harper and board secretary Elsie Sanders.

Lynda McLean was here from Saskatchewan and Bruce Mickleburgh had spent a year in China and may possibly return. He now lives in Willowdale.

A nice gesture on the part of the committee was to arrange for letters to be sent to a former much-loved teacher, Margaret Randall, now in Osaka, Japan.

There was no formal program. Instead, visitors simply re-acquainted themselves with friends they hadn't seen for awhile.

Jane Huxtable, (right), of Stouffville, makes sure everyone recognizes her school friend, Bev Ham, now of Weston and a student at York University. Both are graduates of Orchard Park.

Former staff teacher Ed McDonald, (right), was back 'home' at Orchard Park, Saturday. He's welcomed here by Homecoming Committee Member Ron Robbins.

Both years and miles have separated Gary Grundy, (left), of Stouffville and Bruce Mickleburgh, now of Willowdale, since their teaching days at Orchard Park. Mr Mickleburgh spent some time in China and may return. Mr Grundy is a staff instructor at Richmond Hill.

Former principal Keith Sutherland and former teacher Judy Sutherland, (no relation), share the good times they enjoyed at Orchard Park. Mr Sutherland is with the York Region Board and Mrs Sutherland resides in Elmira.

Jennifer Gibson, (left) and Karen Smith, Elm Road, Stouffville, are neighbors and close friends. They returned to Orchard Park, Saturday, and shared in the nostalgia of the anniversary Homecoming.

Sue Chewins, (right), once a student and now a teacher at Orchard Park, remembers her first teacher, Marguerite Murphy. Both live in Stouffville. Marg signs the guest book. —Jim Thomas
