

School years books arrive

Unwelcome

BY JOHN COOK
When are the Year Books coming? This has been the most asked question at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Raffaella Degli-Angeli and Luz Meyer, co-editors, have lost many hours sleep over the problem. Last May, when S.D.S.S. was informed that the 1982-83 Year Books would not be arriving until fall, the staff received much abuse. However, this week, copies are being distributed and no two people are happier than Raff and Luz. Graduates may pick their books up at Commencement, Friday evening. The cost is $10.00.

day when we receive our first interim report cards. As a suggestion, I have discovered from experience that taking your parents out for dinner a week prior to D-Day, tends to ease the pain.

PLAYOFFS BEGIN
The girls' basketball season has ended with playoffs ready to start. The Juniors have enjoyed an excellent year with 12 wins and two losses. They should be strong contenders in the Finals. The Seniors, coached by Mr Piette, completed the season with eight wins and six losses.

GRADUATION NIGHT
Preparations for Commencement Exercises, Friday night, are being finalized. The time is 8 p.m. Mr Muir, our former principal, will deliver the address to the graduates. A reception will follow in the cafeteria.

JUNIORS WIN
Last week, I commented that our Junior Boys' volleyball team would rank first over-all in York County if competition was on dress alone. On Thursday, the Championships were held at Bayview Secondary School and our Juniors were not only the best dressed but the most talented. They won the tournament by beating Woodbridge in the Finals 18-16 and 15-7. The Juniors and the Midgets will now advance to the Georgian Bay Finals at Aurora.

FUND-RAISER
Looking ahead, the Students' Council is planning its annual Fund-Raiser. On Nov. 15, Cadbury chocolate bars will go on sale. The project continues for two weeks. Also, Parents' Night at S.D.S.S. is Thurs., Nov. 17 from 7 to 9 p.m. WARNING: If you did not get caught on Black Monday, you're sure to get it Black Thursday!

YORK REGION — When Mrs Robert Gammage called at the home of her estranged husband to visit the children, she was accorded an unfriendly welcome. She had the door slammed shut on her hand, it was revealed in Newmarket Court. Mr Gammage was charged with assault. Crown Attorney Tara Dier said the victim fears for her safety. Judge F.C. Hayes criticized the actions of the accused. "Your conduct was not in accord with the law," he said. He ordered Gammage to sign a $100 bond to keep the peace.

BLACK MONDAY
Many people can still recall Black Tuesday, (Oct. 29, 1929). For many students, Black Monday is Nov. 14, 1983. That is the
