Oldtimer hockey

The Betz Pools Oldtimer Clippers will head up a double bill at the arena this Saturday. The Clippers take on the Toronto Islanders at 7 pm, followed by the Stouffville Electric Commodores who face the Richmond Hill Sudzer.

The following weekend the Clippers go to London, Ontario, to take part in the Great Lakes Cup tournament. This year they will play in the 'C' division, having been upgraded after winning the 'D' division trophy last year.

The tournament will give the Clippers a chance of revenge against Port Colborne who put them out of the running for the World Cup last year.

Clipper Oldtimers pledge $5,000 for Rec. Centre.

Hockey has 'Official' crises

With the hockey season in full swing, there has arisen a dire shortage of referees in both minor and girls' hockey. The situation is verging on critical and volunteer help is required immediately.

The associations are prepared to pay boys, girls and adults to help them out of their present situation, but obviously a working knowledge of the game is important.

The pay scale is not large as funds are limited. It does, however, indicate how critical the situation is. The pay scale starts at $1 per game at novice level, increasing by 50 cents in each division to a maximum of $3 per game at Midget level. Anyone who wishes to help out should contact Eldon Wagg at 640-4224, or Cliff Dunkeld of the girls' hockey association at 640-1204.

Cam Fella wins again

It no longer comes as a surprise to hear that Cam Fella has won again. The wonder pacer did it again on Saturday; his 23rd victory in a row, boosting his earnings to $1,016,556 for 1983 to bring his career total to $1,913,867, the highest amongst current competitors.

The win came in the $75,000 Ireland Fund Pace at Yonkers Raceway, where the expected challenge from It's Fitz died at the three-quarters mark.

Only five other horses have ever earned $1 million in one season; Joie de Vivre earlier this year; Niatross and Land Grant in 1980 and Fortune Teller in 1982. All were either two or three year olds. Cam is four.

 Welcome back to 'young' Keith Betz. Keith is looking and playing better than ever.

The league seems to be getting its fair share of injuries these days. Latest casualty is Butch Blacktopp of the Penguins. Butch twisted his back at the Bradford Oldtimer tourney over the weekend.
 Badly missed is Wayne Hainschwang; also on the injured list. Sunday's scoresheet said it all for the absent Whaler's net-minder.

Hope you are both back soon.
