IODE holds quilt draw

IODE NEWS
 By Ruth Wade

UXBRIDGE — Susie Sorabji Chapter IODE met at the home of Lois McConney for their November meeting with 16 members present and Regent Judy Findlay presided.

The quilt draw is to take place at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 19 at Davies Drug Store where the quilt is on display. All ticket stubs must be returned from members before that time.

An IODE booth is to be set up at the Made At Home Sale which will be held at the Music Hall on Saturday, Dec. 3 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Chapter will present April Showers again in 1984. The committee will be: Cheryl Henderson, Eileen Gould, Nadine Deacon, Dorothy Richardson, Jean Newton, Betty Laswick, and Barbara Bell.

Following the business meeting, Pauline Slade gave an interesting slide presentation on Singapore. During the social hour, suggestions for future meetings which members had written out, were read by the Regent and many good ideas were brought forward.

The Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Marg Letteau on Dec. 7.

"This was my old dress. Now I'm wearing my daughter's."

— Ann Davidson, housewife and Weight Watchers leader, lost 30 lbs., has kept it off for five years.

"Five years ago, I was drowning in a sea of fat. My Weight Watchers group was my lifeboat. Weight Watchers helped me turn around my thinking. I learned to take action and make choices that put me on the winning side of the scale. Today I am still free of 30 lbs. of fat, free to be thin, free to be me!"
